ABOUT ME

I have consistently shown dedication in every facet of my life, particularly in my work. Building relationships and enhancing experiences for both my peers and mentors is a passion of mine. I thrive working independently, whether within or outside the workplace, prioritizing success in all my pursuits. Additionally, I naturally gravitate toward leadership roles within groups, driven by my commitment to achieving optimal results and exploring diverse perspectives in every situation.

EXPERIENCE

Radio Personality | WFCF 88.5 Flagler College Radio

January 2023 - Present

I host a radio show every Monday to communicate and entertain my listeners. I engage them by playing music, delivering news and information, interviewing guests, and sharing personal anecdotes. I have already conducted a live broadcasted interview with ring master Kevin Venardos that was aired on the station that afternoon.

Associate Marketing Director | St. Augustine Film Society

November 2022 - Present

I run social media for the society, updating the public on upcoming events and the organization's overall mission. As well as contacting newsletters and publication websites for news features on events or fundraisers. I also help at any event the film society puts on, both setting up and wrapping up.

Staff Writer & Photographer | Strike Magazine St. Augustine

August 2024- Present

Being a part of this student run magazine, pushes me to take responsibility in the workplace and broaden my creative boundaries. My position as a staff writer a consists of writing, developing, editing and publishing content for the print magazine. While as a photographer my job consists of shooting and editing all photos in post-production for all media platforms.
