Hi there,

The Sense team can't wait to head to Las Vegas for the SIA Healthcare Staffing Summit on November 1-3.

If you're attending, we'd love to meet you and share how we're empowering leading healthcare organizations to attract and engage in-demand talent.

Here's how you can connect with Sense:

Meet our team at Booth 104

Head to Booth 104 to get a personalized demo of the Sense Talent Engagement Platform. We'll show you everything that's new in Sense, including our AI-powered job matching feature that is specifically designed to connect healthcare staffing firms with the right candidates.

Attend our speaking session

Don't miss our speaking session, "Navigating Healthcare Staffing Challenges: Using AI to Connect Candidates and Clients." Learn how innovative staffing firms are using AI and automation to meet the workforce needs of their clients.
