ABOUT ME

Bilingual translator in English and Spanish, adept at data entry and transcription since high school. Demonstrates a typing speed of 38-45 words per minute. Eager to apply linguistic skills and meticulous attention to detail to excel in the translation field. Committed to continuous learning and delivering accurate, high-quality work. Motivated to build a long-term career in the translation field, I am eager to contribute my linguistic expertise, attention to detail, and commitment to excellence. Open to opportunities for professional growth and excited to embrace new challenges in the dynamic world of language services. Actively engaged in ongoing language studies and professional development opportunities to stay abreast of industry trends and enhance language proficiency.

EXPERIENCE

● Translation Experience: In my spare time, I engage in translating books, magazine articles, and various texts between English and Spanish. This practical application, coupled with academic studies, has honed my skills in both languages. I've successfully completed translation projects for potential clients, utilizing their work as a platform to enhance my proficiency further.
