

I wrote this story for the LEGOLAND Florida Blog, which is no longer online. It announced the opening of a new location for ice cream within the children's theme park.

New! Kingdom Cones Offers Ice Cream Fans a Whole New Fleet of Flavors at LEGOLAND Florida Resort!

Hear ye! Hear ye!

Be it known throughout the realm that kings, queens, peasants, princesses, knights and knaves can enjoy a delicious new treat in LEGO Kingdoms at LEGOLAND Florida Resort!

This morning, Kingdom Cones opened next to The Forestman's Hideout, offering an all-new, quick-service ice cream location for our guests. And there was much rejoicing.

The menu features soft-serve chocolate and vanilla ice cream served in tasty waffle cones, plus a “swirl” combination of both great flavors. But that’s not all!

There’s more, you ask? Hold thy horses!

Guests can add up to two “flavor bursts” to each cone, including cotton candy, strawberry, blue raspberry, mocha cappuccino, cheesecake, caramel, tropical orange and black cherry.

Everything is indeed awesome.
