AARON LEWIS AND THE STATELINERS ARE COMING TO THE MYSTIC SHOWROOM OCTOBER 23

Tickets on Sale July 23

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – July 20, 2021 – Platinum recording artist Aaron Lewis and The Stateliners make a stop at the Mystic Showroom Saturday, October 23, 2021.

Throughout his more than a two-decade career, whether topping the charts as front man of hard rock band Staind or as a number one solo artist on the country charts, Aaron Lewis has always been painfully honest in his music. “That’s all I’ve ever done,” says Aaron. “My songs have always been me wearing my heart, emotions, misfortunes and sins on my sleeve. I don’t feel like it would be genuine or worthy if it wasn’t.”

Known for his outspokenness, impassioned live show and outlaw country tunes, Aaron Lewis’ latest album, “State I’m In” debuted No. 2 on the Billboard Country Albums chart and is the follow-up to “Sinner.” “Sinner,” upon its release, hit number one on Billboard’s Top Country Albums, Top 200 Albums and the Top Digital Albums Charts.

Lewis has sold 15 million albums worldwide with four consecutive top three debuts on Billboard’s Top 200, including the single “It’s Been Awhile,” which remains one of the most-played rock songs of the decade.

Earlier this month Aaron dropped a new single, “Am I The Only One” from his forthcoming album to be released later this year. The single debuted No. 1 on Billboard’s Hot Country Songs Chart, No. 2 on the all-genre Digital Song Sales and No. 14 on the Hot 100. The track also drew four million U.S. streams in the tracking week. To buy or stream “Am I The Only One,” learn more.

You can also see Aaron this summer touring with his multi-platinum hard rock band Staind and KoRn. For tour dates and ticket info, see details.
