SAN DIEGO

AROUND TOWN

Savor summer's splendor by experiencing San Diego's latest offerings.

BY ALLISON MITCHELL

A UP IN SMOKE Indulge your burning desires with help from San Diego-based brand March and Ash. After opening its debut retail outpost in Mission Valley in 2018, the cannabis-focused business is expanding with two new locations in Chula Vista and Imperial Beach, where shoppers can browse its high-end selection of cartridges, edibles, concentrates, tinctures, topicals and more. Furry friends can also get in on the action as the brand carries San Diego's largest line of CBD products for animals. Further, the brand partners with local animal shelters and rescue groups, including The Animal Pad, plus San Diego City College to educate students on the cannabis industry through its Business of Cannabis course taught by Dr. Leroy Brady. Igniting a movement, indeed. marchandash.com
