

"If you're ever doing something to impress somebody, you're going to always find yourself in that struggle. It's never going to be real. The moment you decide to be real and keep your eyes on Jesus, you put your 'love glasses' on and keep your eyes focused on Him. It'll be authentic and real no matter what." — Beckah Shae on authentic worship. Check out the full interview in February's issue of #YSMagazine.
