Fully 50,000 fans are expected to jam their way into Comiskey park on Sunday afternoon, August 16, to witness the tenth annual East versus West baseball classic. Ample arrangements have been made by President J. E. Martin of the Negro American league and Tom Wilson, president of the Negro National league, to take care of a capacity crowd. Last year better than 48,000 paid to see the ninth annual classic which was won by the East which now leads in the series five games to four.

Both teams are chosen by the vote of the fans. The East manager, W. S. Welsh, manager of the Birmingham Black Barons, was appointed by the Negro American league club owners. Vic Harris, veteran of several East vs. West clashes, was voted manager by the Eastern fans.

Highlight of this year's contest will be Satchel Paige, America's most famous pitcher. Paige, who earned $37,000 last year, will be selected to hurl the first three innings by Manager Welsh. This means that the fans will have to be in their seats early. Last year, the windows in the ticket offices were closed before the first inning started and sold out signs went up. This means to get to the park early and get your seat. Reserved seats can be bought ahead of time. Only the box seats are reserved. Paige will be opposed by Day of
