

██████████ is a member of the firm's Management Committee and Executive Committee, the managing partner for the Asia Pacific region and the senior partner in our Hong Kong office. She is the global leader of our multidisciplinary China Corporate and Finance practice. Her practice covers a broad spectrum of securities, mergers and acquisitions and Hong Kong-listed companies work, including initial public offerings, secondary equity and equity-linked offerings, public company takeovers and reverse takeovers, as well as the restructuring of listed companies.

██████████ has been recognized as a leading lawyer for both equity capital markets, corporate and M&A work by Chambers Greater China Region (GCR)/Asia Pacific and Legal 500 Asia Pacific 2024.

She is highly respected as having “profound knowledge, a sophisticated approach and strong leadership; I don't think there is anyone more experienced and capable than ██████████ in the market on IPO listing matters. She is truly the best of the best,” a client praised her in Chambers GCR 2024.

“She herself is not only proficient in the fields of capital markets and commercial law, but the teams she has organized for us have always been our solid backing, with in-depth knowledge,” said a client quoted in Chambers GCR 2023.

She is also described by clients as a “very respected and adept practitioner” who is able to offer clients three decades of experience in advising IPOs. Market sources recognize ██████████ as someone who is “good at what she does” with “in-depth knowledge about all things in corporate law.”

Additionally, she has been recognized as one of the “Visionaries,” part of the A-List by China Business Law Journal 2024. The Visionaries “acknowledges seasoned lawyers who hold key management positions in their firms and prominent public positions.”

██████████ is a member of the Council of the Law Society of Hong Kong. She was awarded “the Chief Executive's Commendation for Community Service” by the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China (HKSAR). ██████████ also received a “Gold Award” from the Law Society of Hong Kong's Pro Bono and Community Service Awards in recognition of her devotion and contribution to community service.