

Lola & Gunner Halloran

Kelcie Zarle

Say hello to Lola and Gunner Halloran, the Portuguese water dog siblings! Lola, the younger of the two, is 7-years-olds while Gunner is 9-years-old. Gunner was the first to join the Halloran family when he was only 20-weeks-old. The family got him from a breeder in Upstate New York. Named after the dog in one of their favorite movies, Cheaper by the Dozen, Gunner is very energetic but also very calm. He is definitely a “people-person” and loves snuggling with his family members. He also gets really excited when he sneakily steals one of his family member’s socks and gets chased around the house as a result. To get his energy out, Gunner also enjoys going on long walks. When he comes home, he loves to relax and fall asleep.

Like Gunner, Lola is a very loving and energetic dog. The Hallorans got her from a breeder in Michigan when she was 2-years-old. She fit right in with the family and her and Gunner became best of friends. Lola learned from Gunner to love cuddling with her family members. While she can be protective at times, she too loves to meet new people and pets. She has a ton of energy and loves going on long walks with her brother. Lola’s favorite stuffed animal is an old Webkinz that she stole from one of her family member’s rooms.

Both Lola and Gunner love attention and meeting new people or trying new things. At the family’s Cape house, the two of them love getting their paws wet and feeling the ocean breeze in their fur as they ride on the family's boat. They also love going on walks around the neighborhood on the Cape and in Wellesley. Hopefully you get the chance to meet these two Portuguese water dogs on one of their walks sometime soon!
