

WHO WE ARE

As a Native Owned full-service consulting firm and Certified California Small Business, LACO is unique in that we have both a broad perspective of our client's needs along with the flexibility and responsiveness of a small firm. In addition, we have the resources to address project concerns, from complex engineering, environmental impacts, and permitting issues to geotechnical engineering challenges. This broad perspective is fundamental to our ability to provide quality technical support for various project types as a trusted advisor to our clients

CORE VALUES

COMMUNITY

LACO understands that our communities are much more than a workplace. Like the clients we serve, we live here, and are invested in sustaining physical and emotional aesthetics,

ADAPTABILITY and FLEXIBILITY

Willingness to respond and adjust to changes

TRUST and RELATIONSHIPS

For over 65 years we have been building a personal connection to our clients, becoming trusted advisors in the areas we serve.

CULTURE AND MISSION

Culture and Mission LACO's history has played an important role in the development of our culture. Our small-town roots and foundation of knowledge have cultivated a multi-disciplinary firm, accustomed to meeting complex challenges, built on the core values of Community, Adaptability-Flexibility, and Relationships-Trust. These values are fundamental to our mission: advancing the quality of life for generations to come. We embrace new technologies, education, challenges, ambition, and the accomplishments of fellow staff in pursuit of this mission.

WHY WORK AT LACO?

- At LACO, We promote and support our Team Members to deliver high quality professional services with an unmatched client experience.
- LACO team members know they can count on a flexible work environment that helps them be their most engaged, productive, and healthiest self.
- We do that by fostering respectful relationships between team members and leaders, open communication, and collaborative ideals.
