SUMMARY

Experienced journalist and digital communication specialist with a passion for helping people and making a positive impact in the world. Committed to working in the humanitarian sector, using my skills to support global efforts and contribute to the well-being of vulnerable populations.

With 7 years of living and working in London, I have extensive experience collaborating with international organizations, including working for a company based in another country. My work has taken me to conflict zones, where I've reported and managed communications in high-pressure, challenging environments.

Skilled in managing social media platforms, creating compelling content, and fostering engagement for impactful causes. Adaptable, resilient, and ready to collaborate in fast-paced, global settings.
