

A vibrant tropical beach scene. On the left, a large palm tree stands on a dark green island with a yellow bucket and a shovel. In the center, the title 'Tourism In The CARIBBEAN' is written in large, bold, orange letters. Below the title, a dark brown rounded rectangle contains the authors' names. On the right, another palm tree stands on a similar island, with a yellow duck-shaped inflatable ring floating in the blue waves. The sky is light beige with brown clouds and two birds flying.
