Socks That Voyce Your Personality

The clothes we wear can be basic or they can be unique to each of us. Our personalities are expressed through the clothes we wear, and socks are an unexpected way of promoting who we are. Voyce socks are mismatched to achieve just that.

Will you Voyce your personality?

Socks That Spark New Friendships

We constantly make new friends for various reasons. Friends can be made by simply starting a conversation, friends can be made by sharing something in common with someone else, or we can make friends by joining a group or club. But, have you ever made a friend or two because of the socks on your feet? At Voyce, we take pride in starting new friendships by wearing mismatched socks and sharing common ground with those we talk to. Our socks are conversation starters and they create friendships based on the story you tell.

Socks That Channel Your Wild Side

Sometimes, we don't live our lives to the fullest. It doesn't take parachuting out of an airplane or being uber-adventurous to lean into your wild side. Voyce Threads designs socks that allow you to channel your inner wild side without the adventure.

Mismatch your socks and be wild!
