Ask Amanda...

Got a fashion dilemma? Our fashion director has the answer.

Q: I've got a milestone birthday coming up and I'm looking for a pair of show-stopping party heels but I'm a shoe size 9.5 (sometimes a 10) and struggle to find fashionable shoes on the high street. Where do I start looking? Anne, 49

A: "Not being able to find fabulous well-fitting shoes must be incredibly frustrating. Sadly most high street stores only seem to go up to a shoe size UK 8 (size 9 if you're lucky). And you're not alone. Some of the most stylish celebrities have larger feet.

I'd recommend you get yourself online as you'll have much more exciting options. Start by Kate Winslet, Sante + Wilde have bright, bold and beautifully crafted shoes that go up to a size 11 and also a 7-piece collaboration with retailer French Connection that go up to a size 10. I'd also recommend taking a look at Otto + Ivy which has classic heels with a quirky twist up to a size 12 — I also love their loafers and pumps, too.

But if you have a more modest budget, try Long Tall Sally and ASOS — the latter has a whopping 170 pairs of heels available in a UK 10 (some even going up to a UK 13). Cinderella, you shall go to the ball..."

Slingback heel, Long Tall Sally, £49.99, Emerald court shoes, Otto + Ivy, £109, Eniola sandals, Sante + Wilde, £195

Worth investing in

Almond Premium Easter Egg, £25, L'Occitane

"I love a chocolate egg, but I'd love to find this on my Easter egg hunt even more. Hidden inside the recyclable 'egg' you'll find L'Occitane's multi-award winning Almond Shower Oil (250ml) and a pocket-sized skin-conditioning Hands Cream (30ml). Alongside skin-conditioning ingredients, both have the most divinely moreish, almost edible scent. A sweet treat."
