

Nikky Luna

j.nikky.luna@gmail.com | (304) 641-1135 | Independence, West Virginia
nikkyluna.com

Strategic communicator, connector, and writer with extensive experience in communications, marketing, donor relations and development.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Manager, Development and Communications (hybrid), October 2025-April 2026
West Virginia University Institute for Community and Rural Health, Nourish WV Initiative,
Morgantown, WV

- Led strategic marketing and communication efforts while supporting research development and quarterly reporting for this *federally-funded initiative focused on food system innovation (*terminated prematurely by the sponsor in March 2026)
- Led and supported the development of integrated marketing and communication strategies to elevate the Initiative's research, outreach, and community impact
- Managed brand consistency and messaging across outreach channels
- Supported website migration and led content updates as the Initiative's existing site was transitioned to a more secure platform
- Led the launch of new website, which included managing logistics, curating content, and serving as liaison between the communications and design firm and internal team
- Cultivated relationships with project partners through various activities, including: preparing/leading partner meetings; serving as liaison/connector between subcontractors and other collaborators; providing guidance and institutional resources while facilitating a space for mutual sharing of expertise and ideas
- Co-led the planning and implementation of a quarterly webinar series that provided a shared space for learning and networking for approximately 60 NWV partners
- Served as liaison between institutional leadership and internal team and contributed to strategic planning efforts related to food systems research, growth, and visibility

Independent Contractor/Freelance Writer (remote), June 2025-present
Princeton University, School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton, NJ
New South Media, Morgantown, WV

- Serves as contracted freelance writer for Princeton SPIA, writing human interest stories (approximately 600-800 words each) focused primarily on alumni and faculty achievements, research, and SPIA experiences
- Wrote two feature pieces (approx. 950 words each) for New South Media's WV Weddings and WV Living
- Wrote three profiles (175 words each) for New South Media's Fall 2025 Movers and Shapers Health Care Edition

Research Project Coordinator (hybrid), September 2024-July 2025

West Virginia University Healthspan Nutrition Lab, Morgantown, WV

- Supported the project planning and implementation as a contracted, grant-funded project manager for a $969,631 USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture research study
- Supported protocol and workflow development, participant recruitment efforts, collection of data using REDCap software, and the development and dissemination of internal and external communications
- Led provider recruitment efforts, introducing the study and coordinating communications, meetings, and the formalization of collaborative partnerships with health care providers and administrators, resulting in an increase from three to 77 total collaborating health care providers
- Led the development of a 30-page patient education handbook, coordinating with study researchers and a cross-functional marketing and communications team while providing writing, proofing, editing expertise
- Led the launch and ongoing updates of/to the lab's website, coordinating with university mixed media productions, professional technologists, and photographers
- Wrote, proofread, and edited a wide-range of study-related documents, including patient education and recruitment pieces, research manuscripts, PowerPoint presentations, and procedural documentation

Director of Development (remote), September 2023-August 2024

The American Pops Orchestra, Washington, D.C.

- Oversaw development operations and staff and developed fundraising goals and strategy in close coordination with APO leadership
- Developed/implemented the strategy for the cultivation and solicitation of new and current donors
- Coordinated with colleagues and external contractors to develop and implement in marketing/communication deliverables
- Managed communications and all development-related logistics for eight donor events, with attendees ranging from a dozen to 200 and supported overall event strategy, planning, and implementation
- Ghost-wrote and/or edited approximately 5-10 messages a month for APO leadership, targeting prospective and current corporate/individual donors

Director, Marketing and Communications, August 2019-August 2023

West Virginia University School of Public Health, Morgantown, WV

- Led the integrated communications and marketing strategy to support the school's enrollment, fundraising, and service/outreach goals
- Wrote, proofed, and edited various types of content for multiple platforms and audiences, including news stories; media pitches and advisories; e-newsletters; leadership messaging; and website copy

- Developed and implemented integrated marketing communication plans to help launch three new academic programs (Master of Science in Population Health; Master of Science in Industrial Hygiene; Master of Health Administration)
- Served as communications and marketing lead throughout the planning and promotion of School's 10-year anniversary, producing and coordinating multiple deliverables, including: interactive website; suite of branded assets; printed collateral and branded giveaways; event series; and news/website stories
- Coordinated all media inquiries, identifying appropriate content matter expert and coordinating logistics for in-person and virtual interviews
- Oversaw social media strategy and implementation
- Oversaw the marketing and communications budget and operations, including the management of one full-time communications specialist, and served as primary communications/marketing point-of-contact/liaison to university-wide partners

Senior Marketing Strategist, October 2018–August 2019

WVU Rockefeller Neuroscience Institute (RNI), Morgantown, WV

- Developed and implemented integrated marketing communication strategies to elevate the RNI's presence throughout the state and beyond
- Led the planning, promoting, and execution of the organization's inaugural summit, 'Breaking Barriers.' (from the comms./marketing perspective) and dedication of the RNI's newly renovated 60,000 sq.-ft. Innovation Center—which included the coordination of a private tour of the facility for Senator John D. Rockefeller IV and members of his family and senior staff
- Wrote, proofed, and edited news stories, marketing collateral, talking points, and leadership presentations highlighting research breakthroughs
- Coordinated the development of marketing assets to support patient acquisition, including brochures, digital signage, and video
- Led the logistical planning for on-site interview with PBS News journalist Miles O'Brien and team to cover a first-in-the-world procedure
- Led the logistical planning for the RNI executive chair's Tedx WVU Talk, including curating content and editing multimedia slide deck; coordinating with cross-functional teams; and providing logistical day-of support
- Served as primary point for the production of Breaking Barriers, coordinating on-site videography, photography, and editing and approval process
- Coordinated media inquiries, providing pre- and post-interview prep for executive chair and serving as on-site point of contact

Communications Manager, January 2016–October 2018

WVU Davis College of Agriculture, Natural Resources and Design, Morgantown, WV

- Supported the college's recruitment and development goals through identifying, developing, and promoting content for print and digital platforms, tailored to a wide range of audiences
- Served as chief editor and dedicated project manager for the Davis College's 150th anniversary magazine, a 100-page special edition publication

- Helped plan and implement the school's 150th birthday celebration, which included a series of events and multiple marcom deliverables
- Served as writer and editor for College's biannual magazine
- Wrote, proofed, and edited news stories, media pitches, and internal news announcements on a weekly basis
- Helped plan, create, and post content to the College's social media channels

Director of Donor Relations and Campaign Manager, August 2013–December 2015
WVU Foundation, Morgantown, WV

- Led the development and implementation of a robust cultivation and stewardship strategy to enhance engagement and recognize individuals and corporations—spanning planned giving to annual, major, and transformational giving levels
- Managed the stewardship process of donors who supported WVU and its affiliates, with a special emphasis on donors at the major gift level ($25K) and higher
- Oversaw the planning and implementation of internal and external events and special programming, including pre- and post-event communications

PREVIOUS RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Institutional Advancement and Admissions | Alderson Broaddus University, Philippi, WV

Vice President for Institutional Advancement

- Oversaw all development, alumni relations and advancement-related activities and communications and operations, including the management of a ten-member team
- Led the university in raising over $15 million in gifts and pledges in FY 2012, including a one-time $8.5M gift-in-kind, and increasing alumni participation rate
- Served on the President's Cabinet and various committees, including the university's Strategic Planning Task Force

Major Gifts Officer/Dir., Foundation and Government Relations

- Managed a portfolio of approximately 125 prospects and donors, leading the identification, qualification, solicitation, and stewardship strategy
- Assisted with the planning and implementation of alumni and donor-related events on- and off-campus
- Promoted to vice president for Advancement amidst the onboarding of a new university president and an institutional reorganization

Director of Alumni Relations

- Engaged alumni and friends with the institution through the planning and implementation of on- and off-campus events and the development and execution of multi-tiered communications
- Wrote, proofed, and edited content for a variety of channels, including alumni newsletters, magazines, fundraising materials, website, and social media

- Established the university's first Student Alumni Association, enrolling 14 active members in its inaugural year

Admissions Counselor

- Grew the applicant pool by 25%, leading to a 54% increase in deposited (committed) first-time-enrolling students
- Planned and executed quarterly communication plans, targeting prospective students and their families and high school guidance counselors/administrators
- Represented the university at approximately 80-100 college fairs and high school visits per year, engaging students, teachers, financial aid counselors, and prospective students' families through formal presentations and Q&A sessions

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Integrated Marketing Communications, August 2012
West Virginia University, Morgantown, W.Va.

Bachelor of Arts in Communications and Applied Music/Vocal Performance, May 2005
Alderson-Broaddus College, Philippi, W.Va.

RELEVANT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Member, Board of Directors, January 2026-present
West Virginia Botanic Garden

Co-led strategic planning prep and an in person session for the Board as we developed SMART goals in correlation with the WVBG Strategic Plan.

Communications Volunteer, April 2024-January 2025
WV Faith Collective / Justice and Jubilee

Supported the communication planning and implementation for a storytelling project featuring Black women in West Virginia. Recruited and coordinated efforts of seven volunteer marketing/comms professionals. Assisted with a search for a prospective communications position, assisting with job description and interviewing/vetting candidates.

Mentor, CreateAthon@WVU, April 2018
West Virginia University Reed College of Media

Served as a mentor for this annual student-led event, during which teams develop a comprehensive implementation plan and deliverables for local nonprofits within a 24-hour period. Provided guidance on planning and strategy; helped facilitate work sessions; and provided proofing and editing support.