

THE EFFECTS OF COLONIZATION (AFRICA)

Adegboyega Paul Salawu

MAIN POINTS:

- Social Effects.
- Political Effects.
- Economical Effects.

SOCIAL EFFECTS

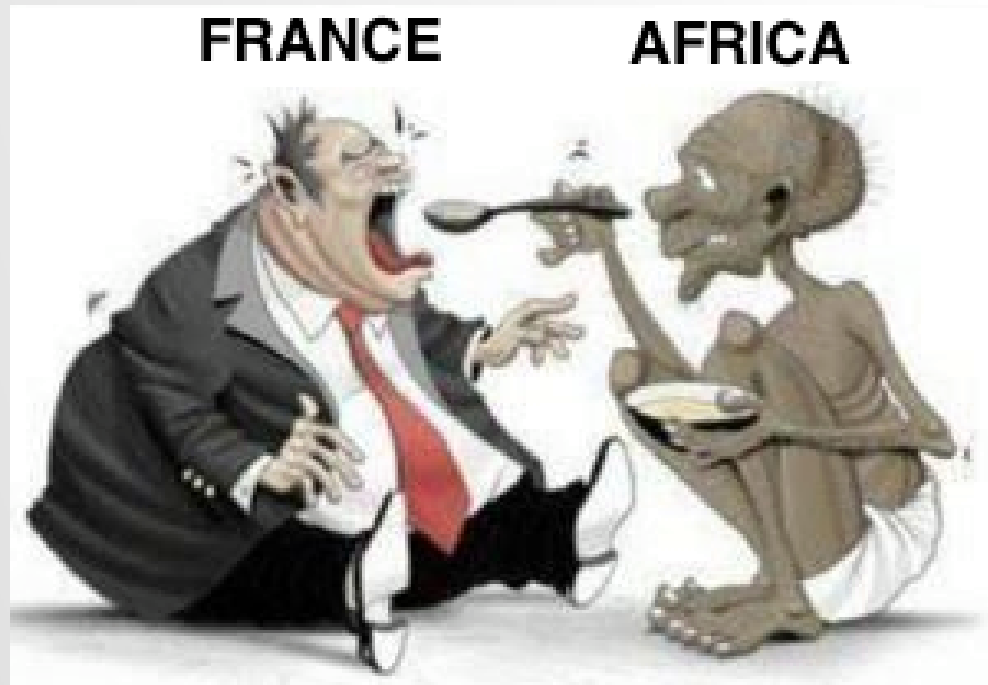

- Destruction of African traditional religions.
- Barricade created among communities.
- Stealing of ancient art works.
- Human Abuse. (Slavery, Lab rats).
- Erasing/Claims over Africa History. (monuments, education)

POLITICAL EFFECTS

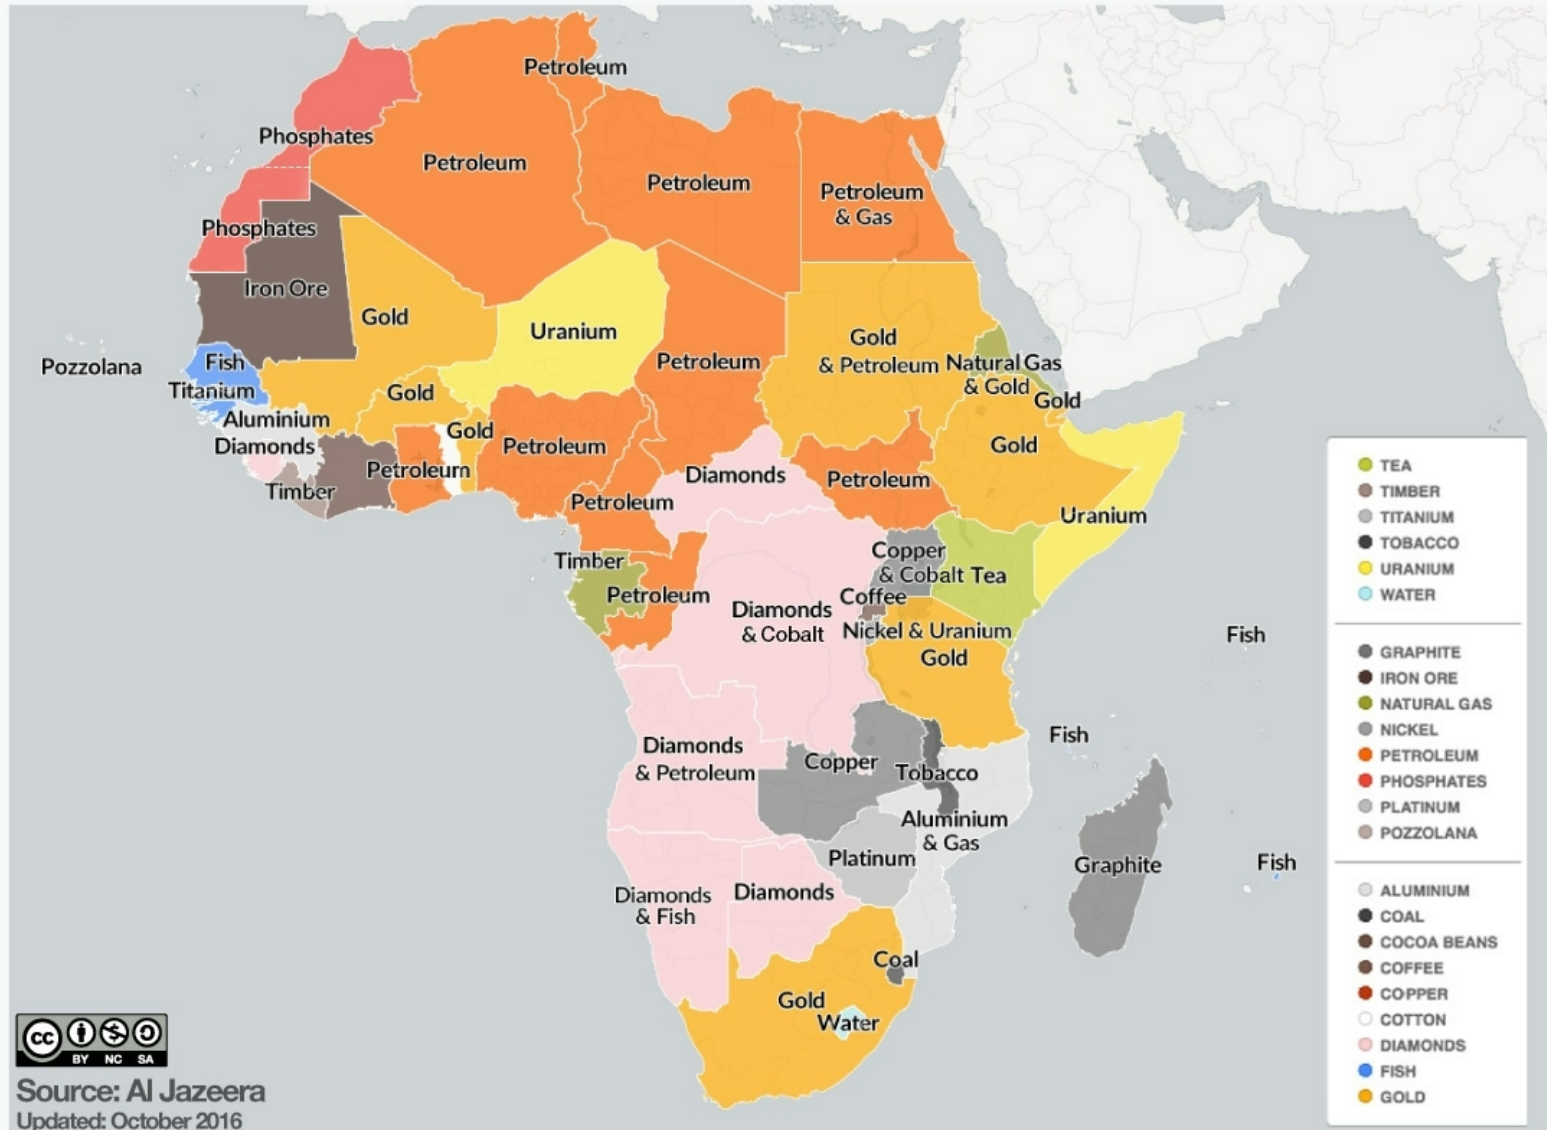

- Democracy Introduction (good and bad)
- Mayhem created when democracy was introduced as a form of government.
- Before the Colonial masters left, they appointed their “Political Puppets” in the higher offices.

ECONOMICAL EFFECTS

- Imbalance Distribution of wealth. The poor have almost zero chances of elevating from poverty.
- Raw Materials exploitation. The Europeans have been exploiting and are still exploiting Africa's resources.
- Most of the large firms in Africa are European/American owned.
- Devaluation of its Currencies.
