

SHOT

STOPPERS!

TOP GOALIES CAN WIN YOU GAMES ALL ON THEIR OWN WITH WORLD-CLASS SAVES. THESE HAVE BEEN THE BEST OF THE BUNCH THIS YEAR

MARY EARPS!

Mary has been the stand-out keeper this season and has been a star for both club and country. She's become a fan favourite – it's no wonder she won the BBC Sports Personality of the Year Award!

JORDAN PICKFORD!

Everton have had a tough time with point deductions this season, but one player keeping them in with a chance of survival has been England's Number 1. He's been superb and has come up with some HUGE saves!

The Argentine ace has been a talisman between his sticks for Villa. He plays out from the back with ease and makes huge one-on-one stops. He's a top keeper!

Up the Villa!

EMI MARTINEZ!

His first season in the Prem has been one to remember, when you think about how he had to fill Hugo Lloris's boots. He looks at home in North London and has nailed down the number one spot for years to come.

GUGLIELMO VICARIO!

ALISSON BECKER!

He's known for his quality saves and keeping Liverpool in title races and he's done exactly that this season. His top stops have helped keep The Reds as high as they are in the table.

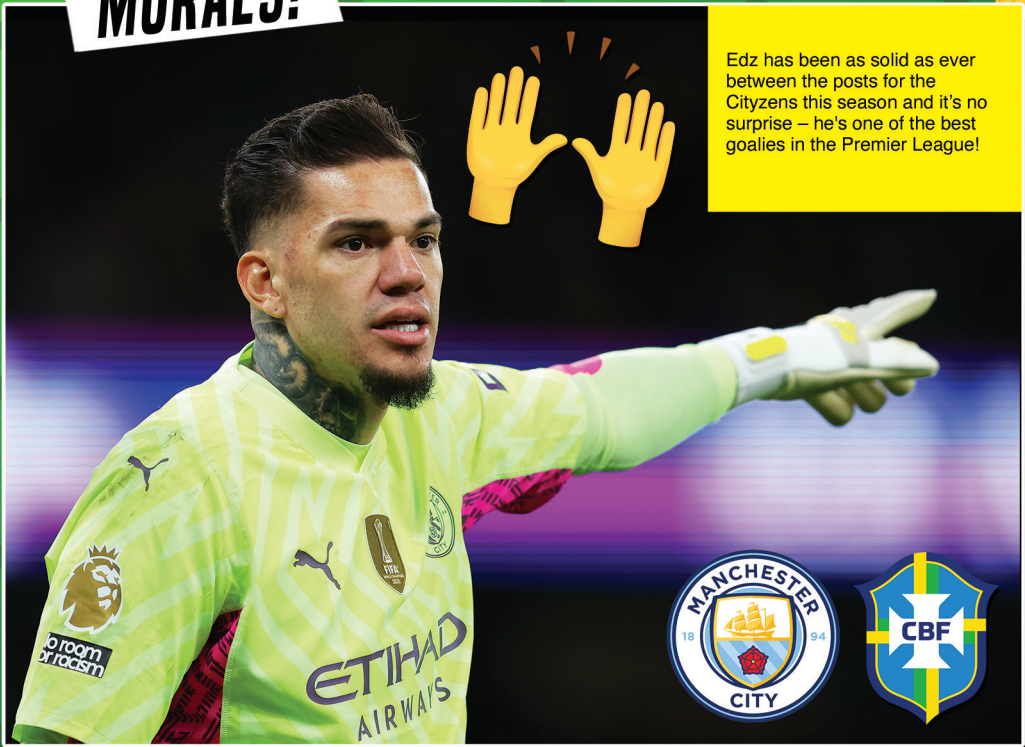

Alisson was once the world's most expensive goalkeeper.

Answer: True.

Who's Number 1?

EDERSON MORAES!

Edz has been as solid as ever between the posts for the Citizens this season and it's no surprise – he's one of the best goalies in the Premier League!

BUNCH OF DIVERS!

These goalies are ready for the diving board! Can you guess who they are?

ANSWERS:
 1. ANDRE ONANA
 2. JOSE SA
 3. NICK POPE