

FACTS!

Read the facts about ladybirds, then answer the questions below.

This is a ladybird.

Ladybirds are a type of beetle with red wings and black spots. They have six legs and eat tiny insects called aphids. A ladybird can eat up to 5,000 aphids in its lifetime. Lots of animals eat ladybirds, including birds and frogs.

What do ladybirds eat?

aphids /
crickets

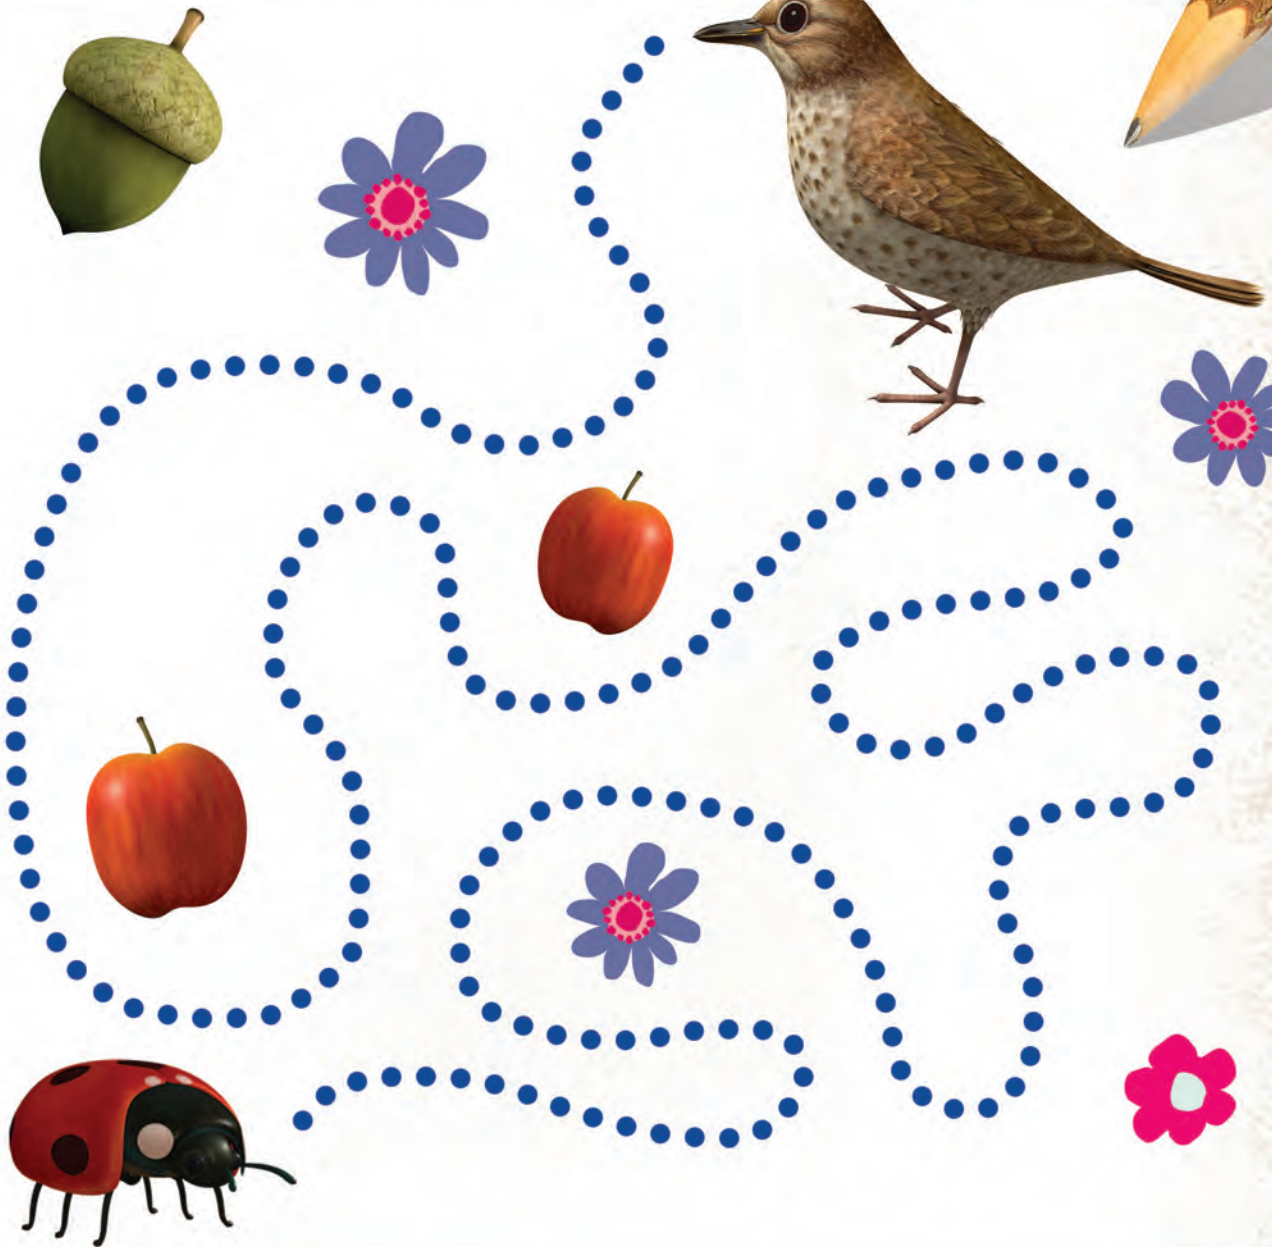

What colour spots do ladybirds have?

The ladybird is being chased by a bird! Trace the dotted trail to help it escape.

Colour and spot the ladybirds to complete the pattern.

