Check out the latest from the 14-year-old actress and singer.

You may know Asia Monet Ray for her dancing days on Lifetime's Dance Moms and Abby's Ultimate Dance Competition, but her vocal covers, new music, and social media presence are something to recognize.

Launched in 2014, her self-titled YouTube channel varies from vlogging with her family, dancing videos, health & fitness, fashion & beauty, and more. She also has a collection of covers from her favorite artists like Tori Kelly, H.E.R., and Sevyn Streeter. Her latest video is an incredible vocal cover of "Stand Up" by Cynthia Erivo.

Ray's channel also features videos with her little sister Bella Blu. Their most recent clip together was the sisters playing a game of how well Bella knows her sibling.

When Ray isn't making videos on her channel, she is producing original music. She most recently dropped her single "Real Life" in 2019 and has not stopped singing since. Her Instagram showcases her style and features her trips to New York and Las Vegas.
