In honor of his 30th birthday, Nigerian musician WizKid released his latest track, “Smile” featuring H.E.R.

The Afrobeats artist gifted his fans today with a new track in celebration of his milestone 30th birthday, along with American R&B artist, H.E.R. The song is the first single to come from his latest album Made in Lagos, which is released today.

This song is the perfect summer track for those who just want to see their favorite person smile. WizKid sings that he would do anything to see her happy.

Fans online have praised the sweet, summer song for the fusion of American and Nigerian musical flavor.

WizKid’s album, Made in Lagos, features artists from different international diasporas, including Burna Boy, Damian Marley, Tems, Starboy Terri, Ella Mai, Tay Iwar, Skepta, Projexx and H.E.R. “Smile” can be played on streaming services here. Listen to the track below.

We would like to wish WizKid a happy 30th birthday and congratulations on the new track.
