

Brittany & Troy

The Aisle

EST. 15 NOVEMBER 2024 | GEORGETOWN, TX

SHE SAID YES!

Their story began in the unexpected scroll of a TikTok feed in January 2020. A simple "like" led to a message, and that message sparked something neither of them saw coming. After a few weeks of shy exchanges, they found themselves building a friendship over countless chats, FaceTimes, and shared laughs. Their first official date happened virtually—a cozy night watching "A Goofy Movie" from miles apart, both of them starting the movie at the same time as if they were together. Soon after, they decided it was time to meet in person.

In June, amidst the COVID lockdowns, Brittany flew to Texas, and Troy would never forget their in-person first date—Whataburger. The order may have been wrong, but the connection they felt was so right. During those few days together, Troy introduced Brittany to his family, and they explored as much as they ...

could despite the shutdowns. When Brittany left, Troy felt the absence deeply, wondering how they could make it work across the miles.

Over the next few months, they became each other's constants, sharing all the little moments and a lot of firsts. A surprise visit for Troy's birthday in August, a trip to Boston for the holidays, and the many family gatherings blended their worlds. With each shared experience, their love grew deeper.

Two years later, in July 2022, Troy proposed. He had asked for Brittany's family's blessing in advance, knowing how important it was for both of them.

Today, as they stand on the threshold of forever, they are grateful for the laughs, the challenges, and the friendship that remains at the heart of everything they share. Their journey has taught them that love is both a friendship and a promise, and they are ready to begin the next chapter together, hand in hand.
