

What I Definitely Know	What I Am Pretty Sure About	What I Do Not Know
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● 6-8 secondary sources, mainly from UCF library system. 1-2 can be non-academic.</li> <li>● Cannot use websites or apps that require login access such as comments on instagram, facebook, or tik tok.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Reflection goes under/after the essay on the same doc?</li> <li>● Does youtube count as a close space website? Not sure if an account is required or not.</li> <li>● Articles found online are considered secondary sources? Or primary?</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Do we use project 1 in helping for project 2, or is it actually implemented into project 2? Meaning, do we use it word for word and place it into project 2 or is it just used as a guideline?</li> <li>● What is a non-academic source? Things we already know or primary sources?</li> <li>● Are we writing a model analysis paper or a research paper that outlines what we found with our sources?</li> </ul>