

Communications

Elizabethtown
College

PROGRAM

STUDENT MEDIA
ORGANIZATIONS

WWEC 88.3 FM “The Sound of Elizabethtown” is the College’s student-operated radio station.

WWEC is a FCC-licensed, 100 Watt, non-commercial radio station covering a 7 miles radius around Etown. The station can also be heard across the county and world via their stream!

WWEC_88.3

ECTV-40 is the College's student-run television station.

The 1000ft. studio allows students to produce and direct original in-studio programming in addition to gaining experience in remote productions. Students also cover campus and community event including art performances and sports games using mobile production equipment.

ECTV.40

The Etownian, the College's student-run newspaper which allows students to report, edit, write and publish their work.

The paper includes sections for News, Features, Campus Life and Sports, and students are able to join as section editors, writers, photographers and copy editors. The Etownian has been recognized for journalist excellence by the American Scholastic Press Association.

Etownian

The Photography Club, is a forum for all students who are interested in the various aspects of photography.

The club seeks to better educate its members in the medium of photography through member-run educational workshops, guest speakers, and public showings of members work. Members organize on-campus photo shoots, as well as, off campus field trips.

