

Romantic Euridge Estate is a seriously pretty choice for an outdoor celebration

UK DESTINATION VENUES

WANT YOUR WEDDING TO LAST LONGER THAN A DAY?
THESE LOCATIONS ARE PERFECT FOR AN EXTENDED CELEBRATION WITH FRIENDS AND FAMILY

Overseas weddings are popular because they turn your celebration into a holiday with your loved ones. It's an option that gives you more time to savour the special moments and enjoy the company of those around you. But, if you don't want to marry abroad (or you've been put off by all the travel restrictions), there are properties closer to home that can create the same effect.

Enter: the UK destination venue!

A UK destination wedding is all about escapism – offering you and your guests a setting where you can forget about everyday life and focus on celebrating all together. Whether that's a venue that transports you to another country with its styling and decor, or somewhere that lets you stretch your festivities for a weekend, there's plenty to choose from across the country.

Need convincing? Here's our pick of the best venues for an unforgettable wedding getaway...

Euridge Estate

More Italian hideaway than English country manor, Euridge House and Orangery is a beautiful venue in the heart of the Cotswolds. With its lush gardens and picturesque backdrops, you're guaranteed an utterly romantic setting if you wed here. For an outdoor ceremony, you have several unique locations to tie the knot – including the portico, castle arch and breathtaking boat house, where guests can watch from beneath the wisteria-scented pergola. Indoors, you can choose an intimate ceremony within the luxurious cloister, or choose the orangery for a larger wedding, surrounded by palms and crystal chandeliers. A bespoke package at Euridge includes exclusive use of the grounds and orangery for three days. You can also hire the manor's 17th century

You can still have an extended, destination-style wedding if you tie the knot in the UK.

Across the country, there's a brilliant choice of venues with some really magical settings for a celebration with all your friends and loved ones.

stone cottages and cloister rooms for 28 guests to stay on-site – perfect for a heavenly weekend in the countryside. euridge.uk

Lusty Glaze

Want a beach wedding without travelling to the tropics? The Cornish coast is a favourite for good reason – its golden sands, sparkling waters and idyllic English charm are enough to make anyone swoon. Located on the north coast in popular Newquay, Lusty Glaze Beach is a cool boutique venue for a destination wedding in the UK. Awarded Britain's Best Beach by The Sunday Times, this secluded, privately-owned cove gives you exclusive beach access for your special day. It's also the only venue in Cornwall where you can

At Lusty Glaze you can legally wed on the beach with the sand between your toes

IMAGES: OXI PHOTOGRAPHY; JESSICA RAPHAEL; JAOb SMITH; NICK WALKER; DEBS ALEXANDER; ABI RILEY

VENUES

Anthology Farm is a stylish retreat that all your guests will love legally marry on the sands. If you're dreaming of saying your vows barefoot with a backdrop of the Atlantic Ocean, this hidden coastal gem can host up to 120 guests in the day. On-site self-catered accommodation is also available for 12 of your closest friends and family. lustyglaze.co.uk

Anthology Farm

For a weekend-long wedding in a rural paradise, you'll love Anthology Farm. Boasting 500 acres of farmland, this stylish venue delivers a gorgeous setting for a private celebration. Set in the Gloucestershire countryside, yet easily accessible from London, this luxury, renovated 18th-century retreat has been transformed into a magically eclectic venue. As a heavenly self-catered property, the entire space can be rented for your wedding – complete with cinema room, indoor swimming pool and nine chic bedrooms for up to 18 guests. Your ceremony itself can be held in the grounds of the farm, where a flat lawn is the perfect spot to pitch a marquee or bohemian bell tent. And while the venue is not yet licensed, it's possible to book a celebrant for your special day or opt for a religious ceremony at one of the nearby churches. uniquehomestays.com

Talhenbont Hall

Nestled in ancient woodland on the Llyn Peninsula, you'll find Talhenbont Hall Estate – a picture-perfect venue for a three-day wedding. Offering complete privacy in a serene setting close to the mountains, beaches and coastal towns of North Wales, this is a dreamy destination for a celebratory getaway. Run as a family business, this venue is all about personal service, so no matter what you want for your wedding, the team has you covered! As well as exclusive hire of the venue for up to three days, you can legally marry in a choice of settings; from the beautiful Coach House and Main Hall to outdoor ceremonies on the pergola overlooking the River Dwyfach. When it comes to resting your head, you'll also find accommodation across the estate for 42 guests to enjoy. talhenbonthall.co.uk

Logie Country House

If you're looking for a luxury, fairytale venue – look no further! Logie Country House, in the heart of Aberdeenshire, is a 17th-century Scottish castle that can be hired exclusively for a three-day wedding. With 17 bedrooms for 50 guests, as well as an indoor swimming pool, cinema room and two outdoor hot tubs, this is a unique venue that everyone will love. From pre-wedding breakfasts to post-wedding brunches, this venue provides everything you need for an unforgettable celebration. Plus, the venue's award-winning caterers have catered for the Queen and presidents – so your wedding's in good hands! On the day itself, you can choose to wed in the modern ballroom or opt for an intimate ceremony in the dining room or outdoors in the beautifully-secluded courtyard. logiecountrypalace.co.uk

Talhenbont Hall delivers a breathtaking back-to-nature setting

The award-winning Logie Country House is ideal for a lavish Scottish wedding

IMAGES: DAVID CURRAN; LOVECLIC PHOTOGRAPHY