

Iconic DESTINATIONS

Want a classic location to tie the knot? We take a look at some of the most famous places to say 'I do'

SANTORINI, GREECE

If you're dreaming of marrying overseas, the picturesque islands of Greece will no doubt be on your radar. Recently, some of the lesser-known islands have been catching attention, but Santorini will always be a favourite! With its whitewashed houses, blue-domed churches and breathtaking views, it's easy to see why – this is a romantic destination that delivers an utterly magical backdrop. Across the island, you'll find a wonderful choice of venues, with lots of options for a civil ceremony or symbolic blessing. For jaw-dropping views, we recommend checking out the beautiful Le Ciel. This luxury restaurant hosts weddings on their terrace, so you can expect incredible photos as you overlook the sea. And when evening falls? You'll be in a prime position for one of Santorini's sensational sunsets.

LAS VEGAS, USA

For a fun and lively affair, you'll want to consider Las Vegas. This US city is known worldwide for its weddings – and not only the elopements you see in the movies! As a city of celebration, Vegas offers many great places to say 'I do' – from iconic chapels to romantic outdoor venues and classic fairytale settings. If you're after a luxury wedding, Vegas should be high on your list. With its huge selection of lavish venues, you'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to picking your favourite. Caesars Palace is famous for good reason – and it's one you'll want to note if you're after dreamy surroundings and next-level service. But, if a simple affair is more your thing, Vegas is still amazing. Pretty chapels are found in abundance with lots of options for hosting a fuss-free, intimate and unforgettable ceremony.

IBIZA, SPAIN

Cast away any notions you have of Ibiza because this is a really romantic spot for a boho wedding. Boasting glorious scenery and sun-drenched beaches, this Mediterranean island does barefoot bliss like no other. Of course, the nightlife is well known, so if you're after a lively fiesta, this island has you covered. But, for those wanting zen, Ibiza has pretty villages, secluded coves and quiet venues away from the party scene, too. It really is no wonder that so many couples love this paradise island and choose it for their vows! With beautiful fincas, trendy beach clubs and stunning restaurant venues, you'll find lots of options in heavenly surroundings. One of our favourites is Amante, which is perched on a cliff overlooking the bay of Sol d'en Serra. Set in an area of natural beauty, this is an idyllic spot for a wedding.

CAPE WINELANDS, SOUTH AFRICA

South Africa is a diverse country that offers so much more than safaris and vast open plains. An incredible destination with stunning landscapes, it has a plethora of options when it comes to tying the knot. In recent years, we've seen so many couples jetting to this country for an overseas wedding that really wows. And, while we love the idea of a safari-centric wedding, one region that comes out on top is the gorgeous Cape Winelands. Here, in South Africa's wine capital, you'll find magnificent scenery and exceptional properties for a back-to-nature wedding. There are several venues in the area that will impress your guests, including the luxury L'Atrium at Grande Roche. Set in the foothills of Paarl Rock, this is a sophisticated venue that makes the most of its breathtaking natural surroundings.

AMALFI COAST, ITALY

There aren't many places that do romance as well as Italy. This is a country that visitors flock to thanks to its interesting cities, quaint colourful villages and enchanting natural scenery. The Amalfi Coast is one of the country's prized regions and it's a wonderful setting for an elegant coastal wedding. Rather than sandy shores, here you'll be treated to picturesque pebbly bays, rich historical charm and plenty of sparkling sea vistas. Boutique hotels and luxe villas are the venues of choice and you'll find many cliffside options with terraces that are perfect for an alfresco affair. If - like many - Positano is on your vision board, make sure you check out the beautiful Villa Oliviero. This family-run villa is a stylish spot for a wedding, with views that are sure to take your breath away.

TULUM, MEXICO

We love Mexico as a honeymoon destination and it's also great for getting hitched. Many ceremonies take place in the all-inclusive resorts of Cancun, but Tulum is ideal if you want a rustic wedding with laid-back charm. Located on the Caribbean coast, this part of the country has everything you could want for a tropical beach wedding. Lush palms, crystal clear waters and white sand beaches sum Tulum up perfectly - it's a paradise destination that delivers a divine backdrop for your vows. You can choose to wed on the sands, with chic boutique hotels offering packages to suit every couple. NEST Tulum is one of the original beachside properties and is a magical choice if you're planning an intimate wedding. The venue's ethos is all about natural simplicity and it definitely delivers if you want a meaningful and ultra-romantic occasion.
