

Have you ever thought
about being an exchange
student in Brazil?

You can learn more
about the culture,
language and your
area of study.

The Fluminense Federal University (UFF) is located in the state of Rio de Janeiro.

The institution has partnerships with more than 150 universities around the world.

This public university is recognized for its excellent research, quality teaching and social responsibility.

The background image shows a blue university building with the text 'Universidade Federal' visible. In the foreground, a large group of diverse students is gathered on a grassy area. Some students are sitting on the ground in a circle, while others are standing behind them. A man in a light blue shirt and khaki pants is standing in the center of the group, facing them. A white bus is parked behind the students.

If you want to know if your university is our partner, click on the link "partner institutions", available in our bio. If so, you can search for student exchange applications at your university and study at UFF.

We will be happy
to welcome you!
