In 2006, Pollard reappeared on the popular VH1 show after getting her heart broken in the first season. When Public Enemy's Flavor Flav rejected Pollard for the second time, she made reality show history when she cursed Flavor Flav out during her iconic exit, telling everyone on set that she "didn't give a fuck!"

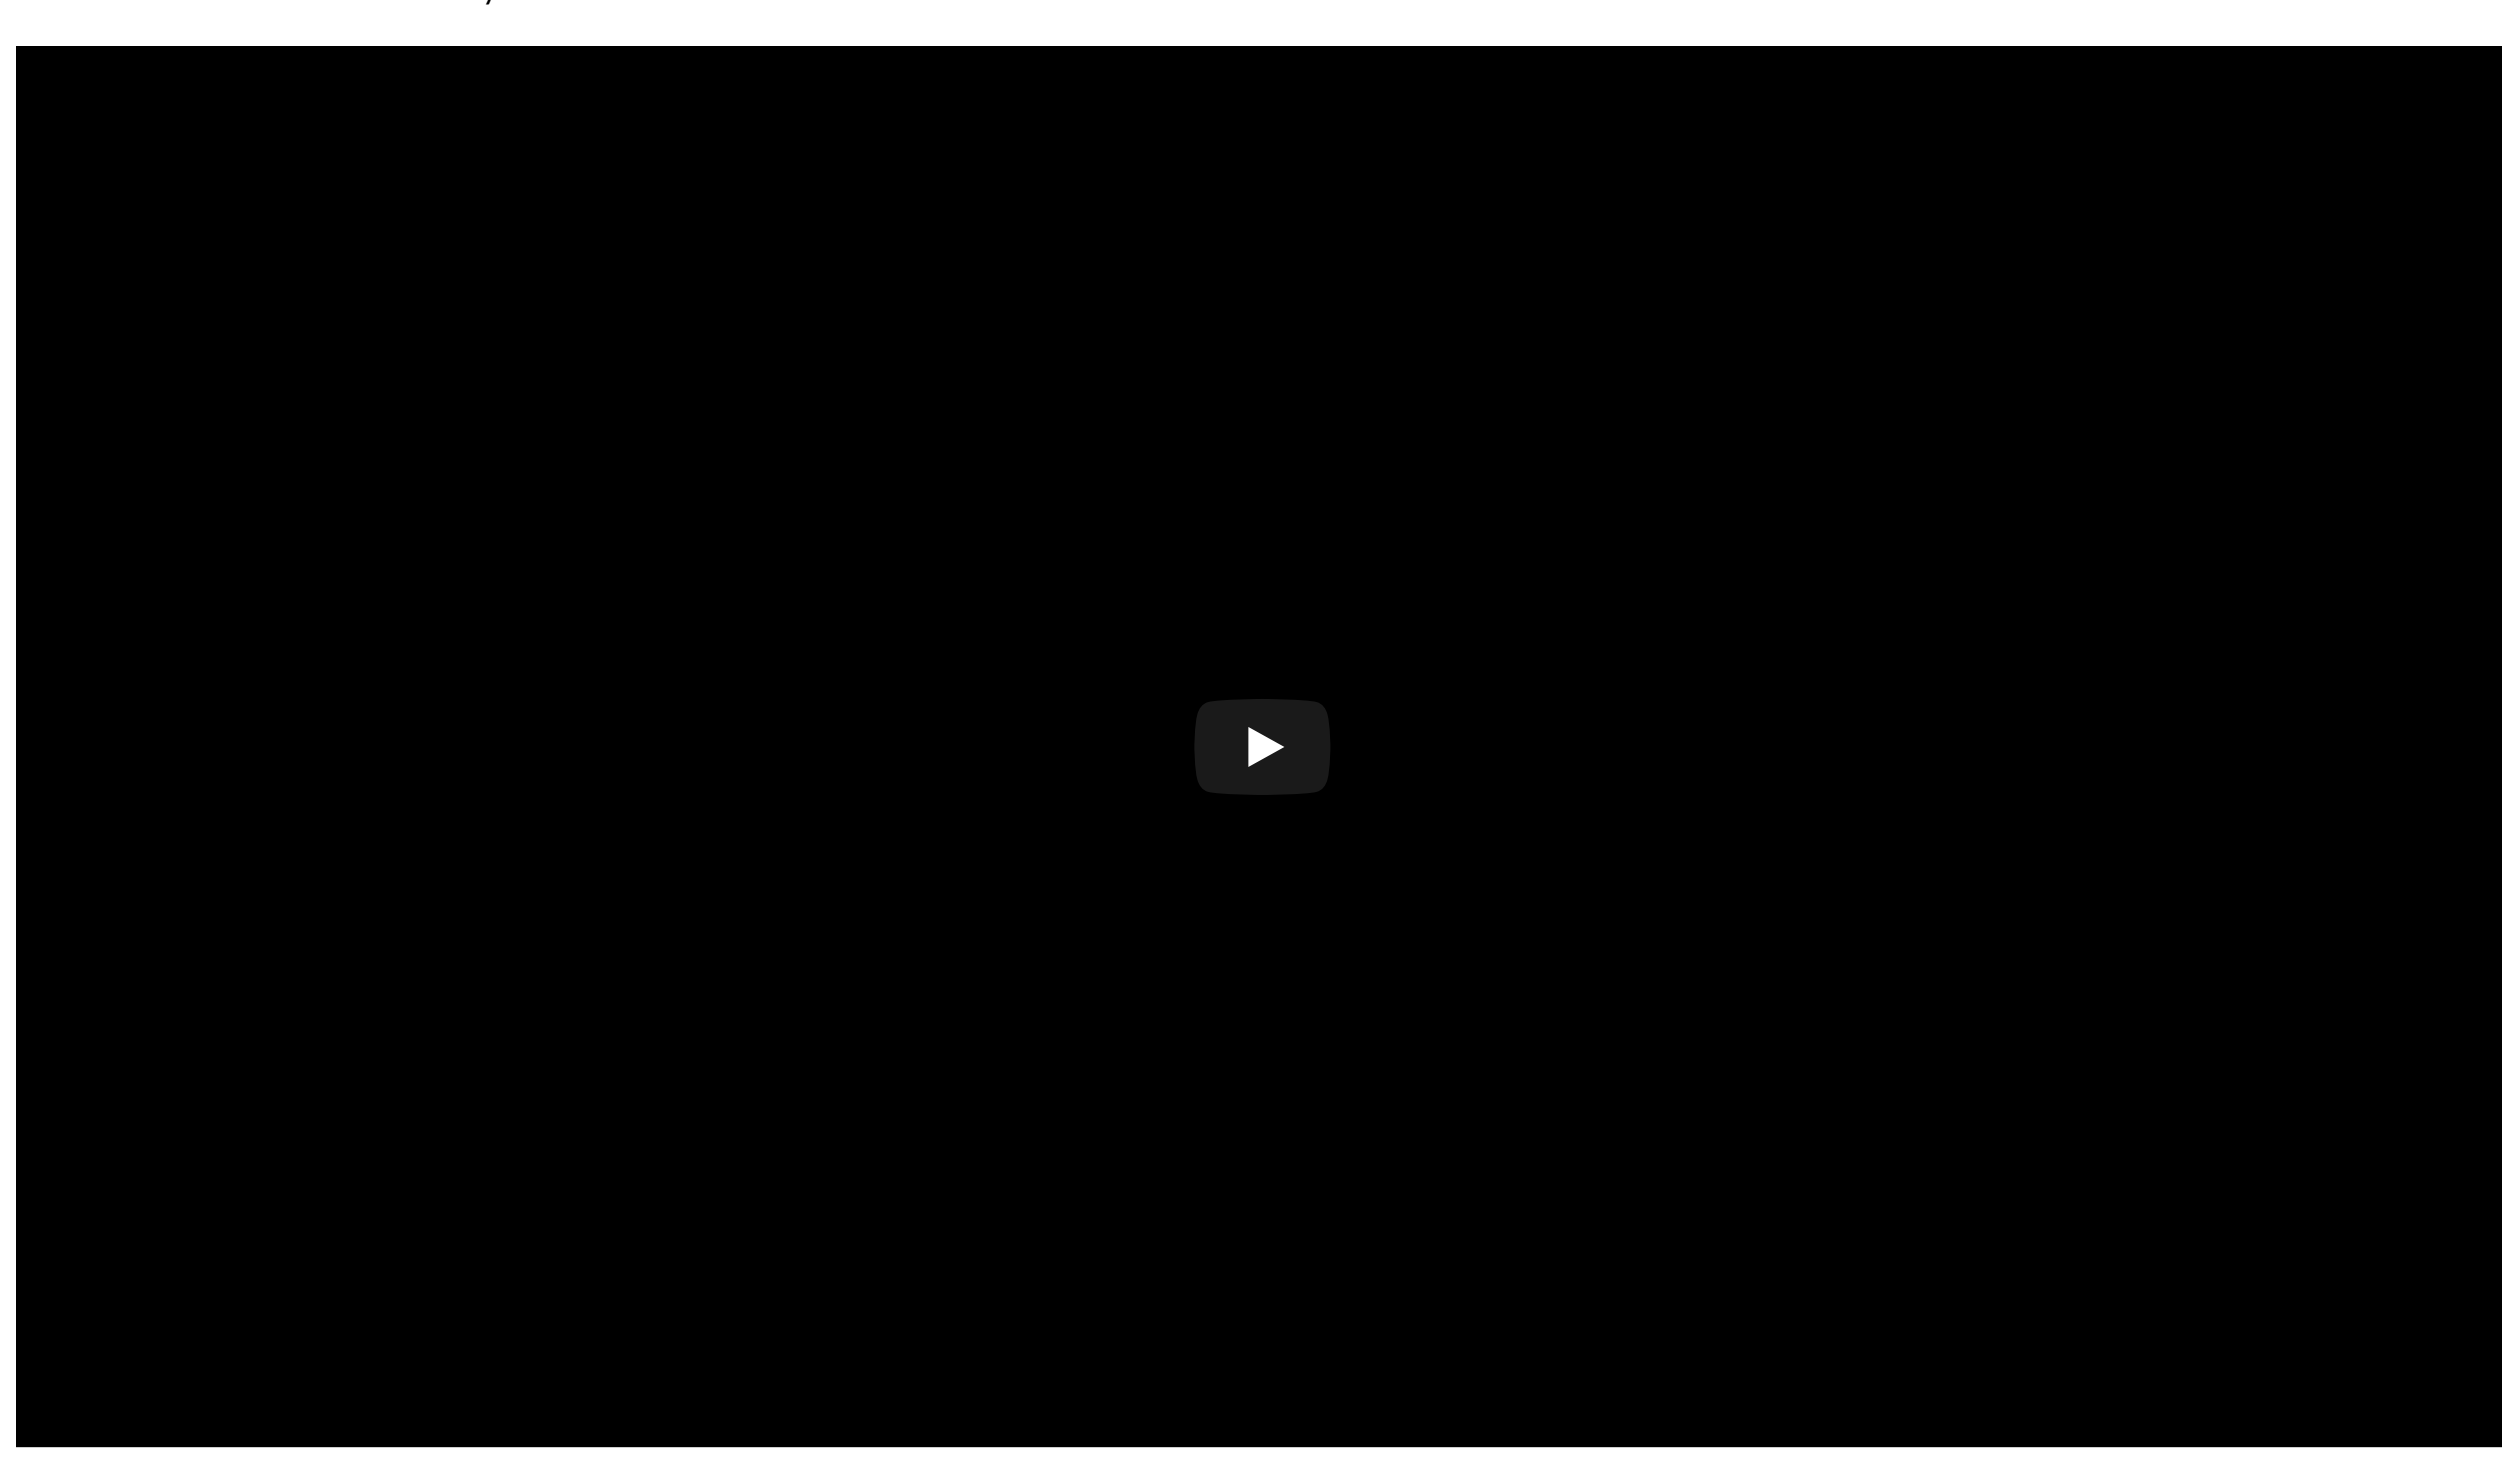

Flö Mini hit the nail on the head with her reentractment in Ice Baby, as she goes from being eliminated next to the real Deenshins and a fake Flavor Flav played by Buddy, to performing the hard-hitting track while dripping in ice.

Ironically, Flo Milli and Buddy both took part in the 2020 BET Hip Hop Awards cypher and now, the two have reunited for a hilarious nostalgic moment. Produced by Brett On The Beat, Ice Pic Brad and Beats By Slade, she's giving her haters something to talk about.

"Hop in the car and I race, I see the stars in the Wraith, talkin' my shit in your face. I might just spit in your face," she raps. "Blood on my shoes 'cause it bled, on the runway, it be red, you can't keep me out your head, ho, keep my name out of your thread/Kick it with hoes, I don't pick if you broke, the reason I'm different, I do what you don't/You do what you can and I do what I want, the second that I get turned off then it's on."
