AS THE KANSAS CITY CHIEFS LOST TO THE PHILADELPHIA EAGLES IN THE 59TH SUPER BOWL, SUNDAY ALSO MARKED THE FIRST TIME A SOLO RAPPER HEADLINED FOR THE SUPER BOWL HALFTIME SHOW.

KENDRICK LAMAR DELIVERED A 13 MINUTE PERFORMANCE OF SOME OF HIS GREATEST HITS INCLUDING "NOT LIKE US" AND "SQUABBLE UP."

HIS PERFORMANCE FEATURED OTHER GUESTS LIKE SZA AND TENNIS STAR SERENA WILLIAMS.

DURING THE PERFORMANCE, A PROTESTOR CLIMBED ONTO THE SET HOLDING A PALESTINIAN AND SUDANESE FLAG, RESULTING IN THE PERSON BEING BANNED FOR LIFE FROM N-F-L STADIUMS AND EVENTS.

ROC NATION, THE COMPANY BEHIND THE SHOW, SAID THE PROTEST WAS UNPLANNED.
