

Evie Woodward
News Writing and Reporting
11 February 2024

Finding News

1. News peg:

- Georgia 4-H changes its Native American summer camp theme after almost 70 years.

Newsworthiness:

- The Rock Eagle Effigy has long been honored as a historic monument built by Native American individuals around 2,000 years ago. In 2023, Rock Eagle 4-H Center made decision to change the theme which now revolves around birds.

2. News peg:

- TikTok influencers for homesteading, conventional gender roles, and holistic options: is this the new majority opinion?

Newsworthiness:

- Almost everyone with social media is subject to TikTok content, Instagram, and Facebook reels. Therefore, it is no surprise that the 9-5 norm has recently become immersed in negativity as thousands of TikTok'ers share their reasoning for the rejection of climbing a corporate ladder. Is there truth behind this?

3. News peg:

- New York teachers are on strike as students have been kicked out of a local school to house illegal immigrants. Is Georgia next?

Newsworthiness:

- New York authorities are housing illegal immigrants at James Madison High School in Brooklyn. Many teachers have gone on strike in protest to this decision. With NYC resulting to high school gymnasiums for sheltering migrants, will states closer to the boarder be next?