Seasonal Swaps for Fall

A nip in the air and a hint of color on your trees is a sure sign that cooler, crisp days are ahead. Follow our lead to style your own Fall House for the season.

Take a cue from nature

Replace the light, airy hues of summer with an earthy, soothing palette. Incorporate leafy browns, golds, and copper colors into your bedroom, living room, or entryway by adding multiple accent pillows, throws, or rugs for an instant refresh.

For the dining room, incorporate evergreens and botanicals like leaves, twigs, acorns, pinecones, herbs, and even essential oils for a calming autumnal look, scent, and feel.

Weave in warmth

It's cider and hot-cocoa-by-the-fire time! As we spend more time indoors, layer on the layers with soft, cozy throws, thicker curtains, and more substantial bedding. Bring out the velvet, wool, knit, flannel, cashmere, and quilted pieces.

Draw attention to your hearth or mantel by styling it with pumpkins, gourds, branches, wreaths, candles, sconces, and mirrors.

Bring in a bit of black

With Halloween just around the corner, think subtle, not scary. Black is gaining popularity as an elegant contrasting color. Use sparingly to make a statement.

This versatile choice grounds any room and works in numerous style settings.
