After a long winter, a little TLC is in order. Clean the grill, sweep away debris on your porch, patio or deck and repair any weather-related damage. An outdoor sofa makes a great spot for guests to sit and socialize. Fresh florals, whether in outdoor planters or bouquets in vases, make for an inviting scene.

Create a Celebratory Mood Refresh seating areas with new outdoor pillows. If it's cool out, or the party lasts into the evening, company can relax by a cozy fire pit. An outdoor area rug is a must for adding softness and color and containing dirt from being tracked inside. Also, add some color inside, just in case. Be prepared to move the celebration indoors if it starts to rain. Shop Outdoor Lighting

Bring on the Food

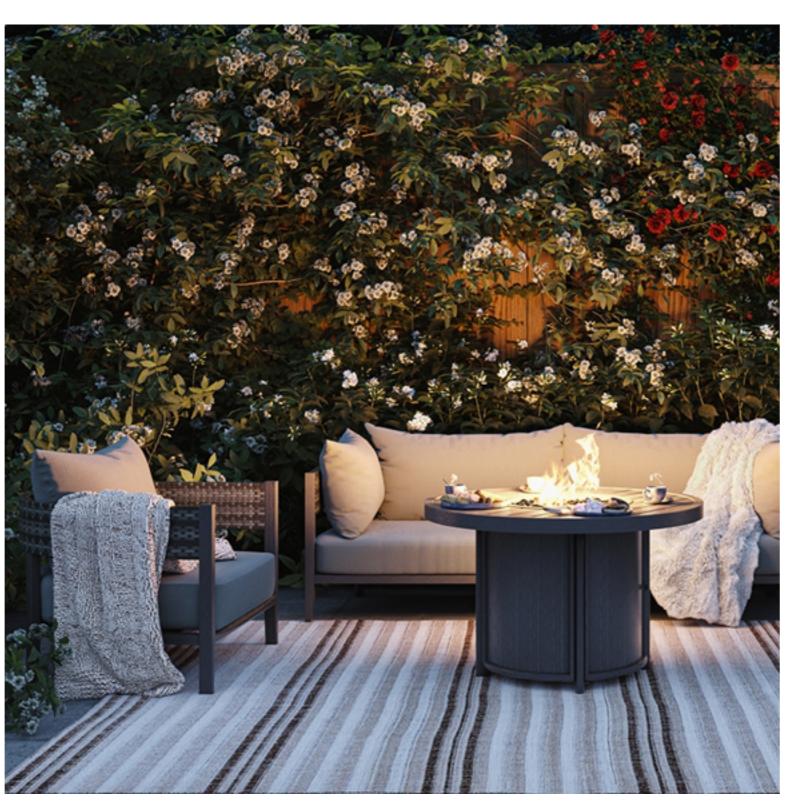

Dish up fun with a hot dog or hamburger bar with classic and creative toppings (crushed pineapple anyone?). Cut down on prep time by having guests bring a dish to pass.

Stock up on watermelon, potato and macaroni salad, chips, and dips. Make sure to offer at least one vegetarian option. Fruit or veggie kabobs on the grill are a tasty and portable treat. A bar_cart with a large container filled with ice makes a great spot for drinks and eliminates the need for you to go back and forth to the kitchen.

Get Ready for Games!

Start a new tradition with a spirited game of badminton, volleyball, or croquet. You can also challenge guests to corn hole, a bean bag toss, or a classic potato sack race (use a pillowcase if you can't find burlap bags). The fun doesn't have to end at dusk. Extend the party with smores around a firepit. Share family tales or ghost stories.

Stop and reflect at 3 p.m. to observe the National Moment of Remembrance. This moment of silence takes place every Memorial Day and shows respect for servicemen and women who have fallen. We have the freedom to gather with loved ones due to their sacrifices. Wishing everyone a safe, healthy, and happy holiday!
