OVERVIEW

WHAT IS GREENPOINT GALLERY?

Established in 2003 by artist and musician Shawn James, The Greenpoint Gallery is a non-profit arts organization focused on emerging artists that offers classes, lectures, career counseling and affordable exhibition space. By fostering both creativity and business skills, our mission is to empower artists, help them navigate the art market, and establish a path towards achieving their career goals.

Greenpoint Gallery offers 10,000+ square footage across the various spaces. Rent one space or rent them all - Several rental packages are available curated to your needs.

BRAND ALIGNMENT

- Nestled in the historic, creative, and vibrant neighborhood of Greenpoint, Brooklyn, Greenpoint Gallery offers a space unlike any other: a working artist-led environment where exhibition, experimentation, and community converge.
- Aligning with Greenpoint Gallery means supporting a nonprofit that has dedicated itself to emerging artists, accessible arts education, and cultural programming for 25 years.
- Whether you're hosting an event or seeking studio or rehearsal space, Greenpoint Gallery invites you to join us in contributing to Brooklyn's vibrant and enduring cultural landscape.

PROMOTION OPPORTUNITIES

- Greenpoint Gallery offers event promotion across our high-engagement digital channels, with messaging tailored to each partner's goals.

We'll collaborate closely with you to create an immersive experience that leaves a lasting impression on your audience.
