New York Youth Filmmakers To Present Their Short Films at the City of Stories
Upcoming Screening At DCTV's Firehouse Cinema

July 18, 2024

DCTV is thrilled to present the City of Stories Youth Media film screening at the Firehouse Cinema in Tribeca. This event will feature short films created by young filmmakers from across New York City, highlighting a variety of perspectives and innovative methods of storytelling.

New York, July 18, 2024 -

DCTV is honored to announce the City of Stories youth film screening at the iconic DCTV Firehouse. This special event showcases the vibrant creativity and diverse voices of young filmmakers across the city. Witness the power of storytelling as these talented youths share their unique perspectives through short films spanning genres, cultures, and experiences. From heartwarming narratives to thought-provoking documentaries, each film promises to captivate and inspire.

The screening will be held on August 1st in the Firehouse Cinema at 87 Lafayette St, New York, NY 10013. The doors will open at 6:00pm, and the film screening will begin at 6:30pm, with a Q&A Session with the young filmmakers to follow. Seating is limited, so arrive early to secure your spot! There will be an overflow space after the theatre fills.

DCTV Youth Media teaches New York City teenagers and young adults (ages 13 - 24) how to use media to tell important personal stories and help ignite social change. Our programs are always free and we encourage diverse students from all five boroughs, regardless of experience or background, to join us. In addition to learning about filmmaking and creating original films, students receive mentorship, college counseling and opportunities for professional development in the media industry. 100% of our high school students graduate and go on to college. Acceptances this year include Brown University, Vassar College, and Cal Arts.

Don't miss this chance to support and celebrate the budding talent of our city's young filmmakers. Mark your calendar for a night of creativity, community, and cinematic magic at the City of Stories youth film screening!
