HOW YOU MEET
Joe

S'TRU! Aw'kaphphi!

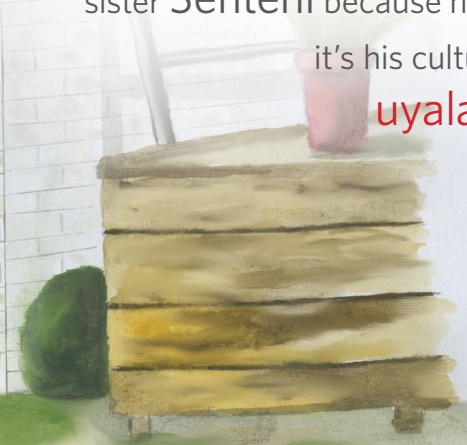

JOE loves his wife but believes a man has to have a secret lover (Makhwapheni) to keep his marriage strong. JOE also has sex with Todvwa who is a waitress at a local restaurant he always eats at, because he gets satisfaction.

Todvwa is married to Ndu. They have two children. She has sex with JOE to get more money to take care of her family because Ndu does not work.

Ndu sleeps with Todvwa's younger sister Senteni because he believe it's his cultural right uyalamuta.

Senteni has a boyfriend Masabalala.

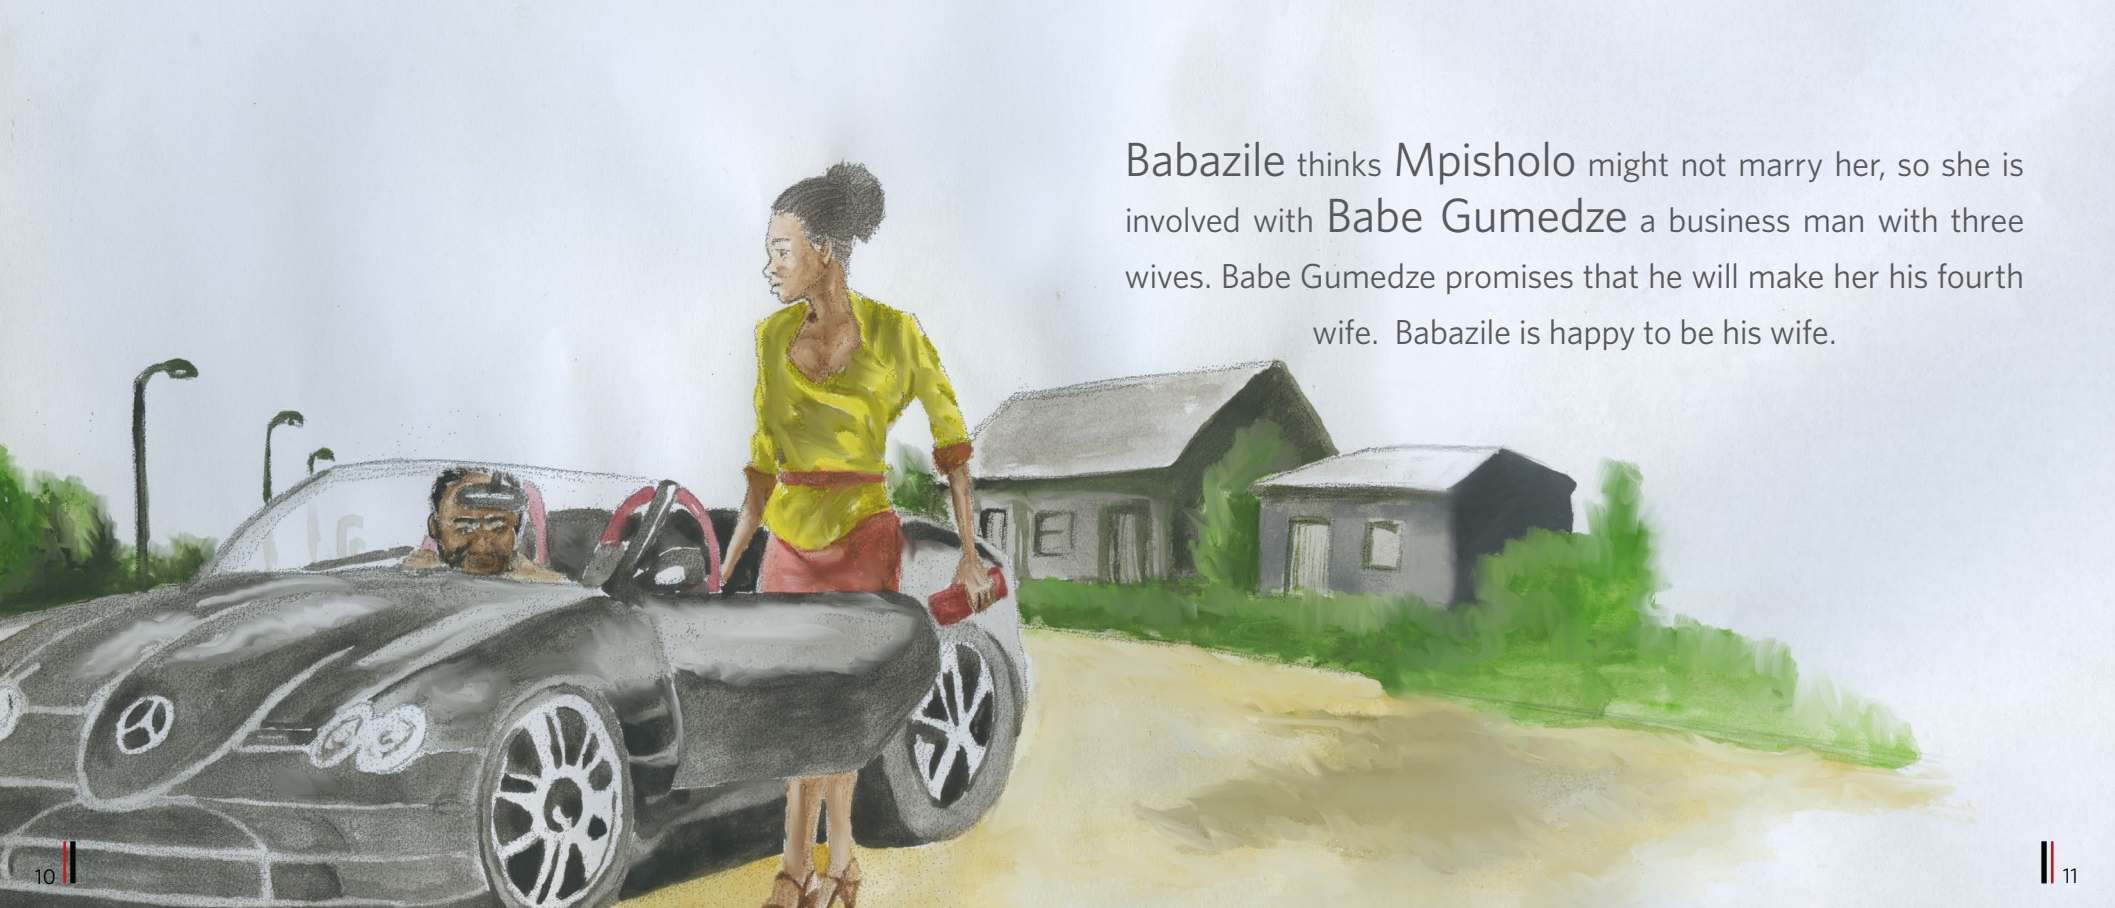

Senteni says the reason she cheats on her boyfriend is because he does it too, Iso Ngeso. She also has sex with Mphara who is a soccer star.

Mphara has a steady girlfriend Zazi.
He has no strings attached sex with Sibongile and enjoys one night stands at night clubs.
Mphara is a player because he believes women love players.

Sibongile is looking for marriage but she knows she cannot have it with Mphara. She thinks Mpisholo is marriage material because he looks serious but he also has Sindisiwe, Velile and Babazile in his life. He believes that a wife is chosen from a pool.

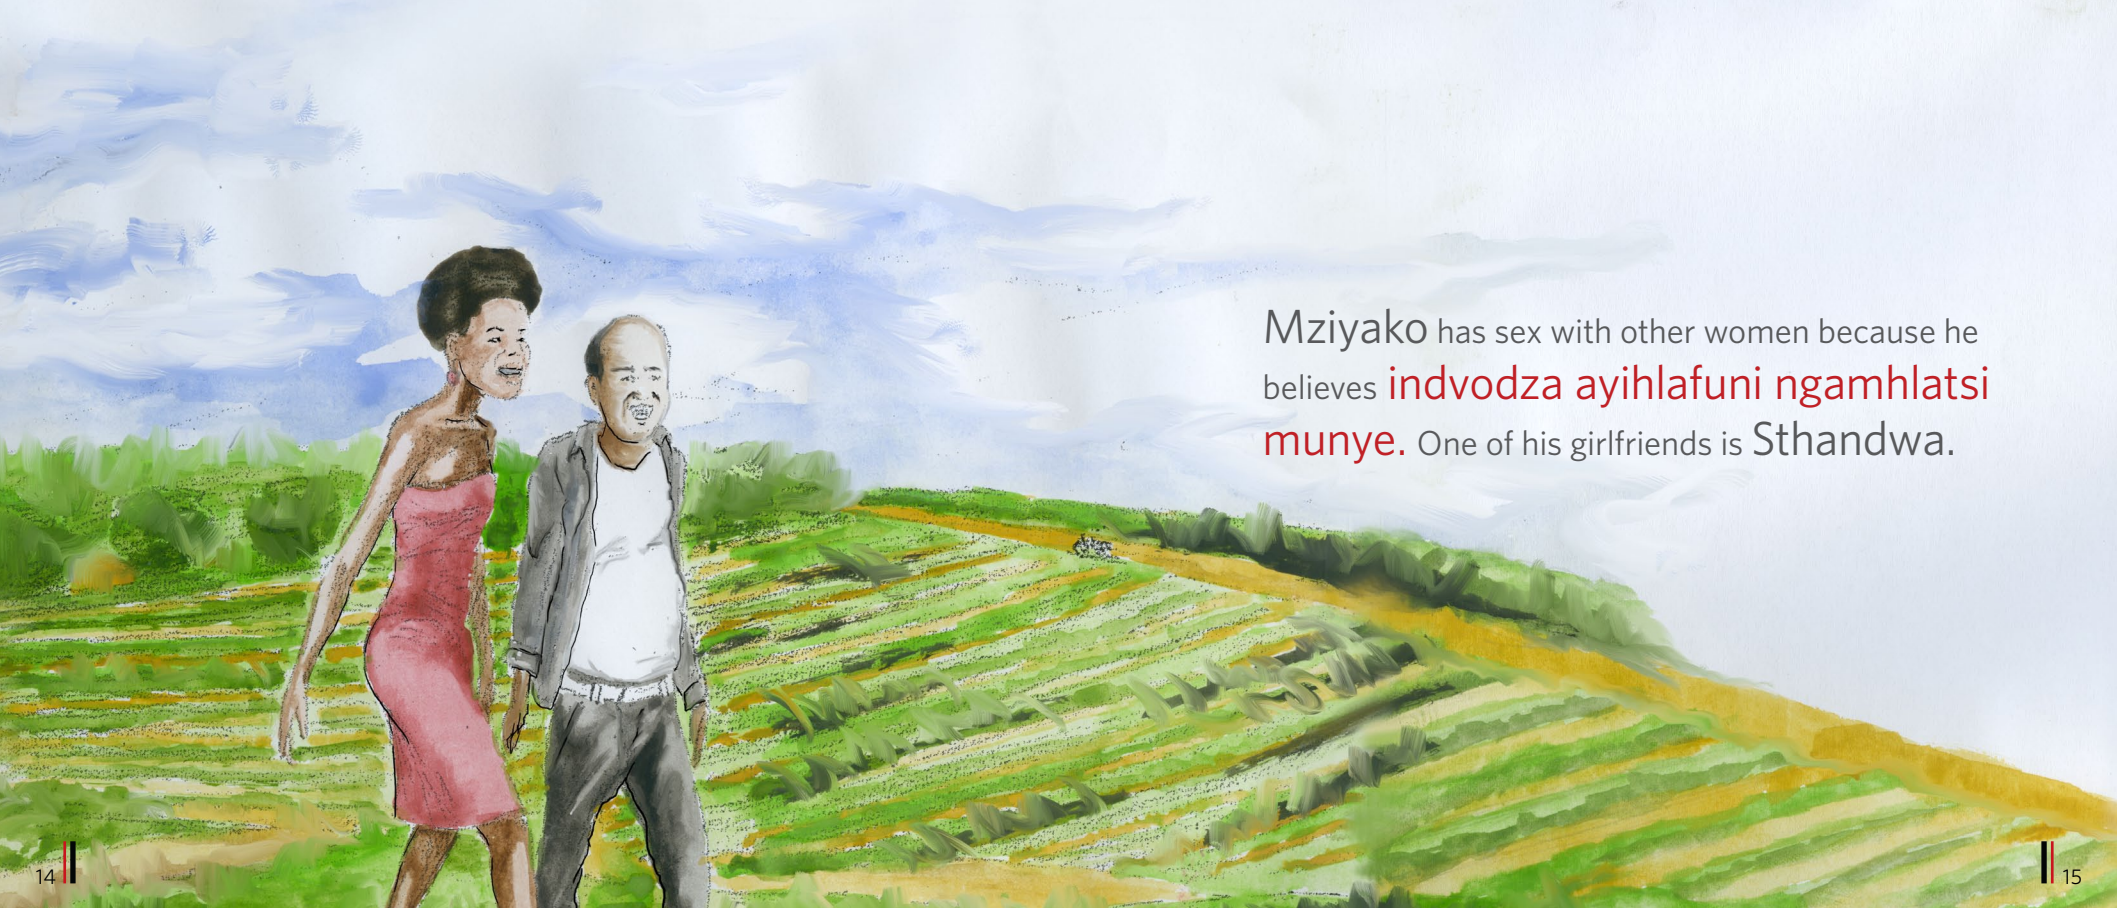

Babazile thinks Mpisholo might not marry her, so she is involved with Babe Gumedze a business man with three wives. Babe Gumedze promises that he will make her his fourth wife. Babazile is happy to be his wife.

Babe Gumedze's second wife laMsane feels neglected but he tells her kuluswa lefikako.

laMsane has started having sex with Babe Mziyako who is a farmer and is always there for her. She feels cared for because he listens and treats her with respect.

Mziyako has sex with other women because he believes indvodza ayihlafuni ngamhlatsi munye. One of his girlfriends is Sthandwa.

Sthandwa is a young clerk. She is sick of Mziyako's games because she wants true love. She finds it with Lunga who feels trapped in his marriage but wants to be with her.

Lunga's wife is aware of the affair and tells Sthandwa to leave her husband. Sthandwa knows that she has his heart and tells her "keep the ring and I'll keep the man".

What is S`TRU! Aw`kaphphi! About?

S`TRU! Aw`kaphphi! is a campaign that shows how everyday sayings and expressions are used to excuse the habit of having sex with more than one person. It gives warning that thinking and using these sayings make us have more than one partner which leads to getting HIV.

The S`TRU! Aw`kaphphi! message...

You are not safe from HIV if you and your partner think, say or believe these things.

Even if you think it is justified, having sex with many partners puts you at risk of getting HIV.
