Celebrate Martin Luther King Jr. Day

Honor the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at these community events:

2020 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Power Leadership Breakfast

Saturday, Jan. 18, 8-10 a.m.

Collin College's Plano Campus (Spring Creek) Living Legends Conference Center, 2800 E. Spring Creek Pkwy.

This year's theme for the breakfast is "2020: Hindsight, Insight, Foresight." The breakfast features presentations and student performances sharing Dr. King's message with a special address by Dr. Clay Brantley. Afterward, visit the business and information expo in the atrium where you can connect with local vendors and nonprofit organizations.

Both are free and open to the public.

COME.Unity 2020 Love & Justice church service

Sunday, Jan. 19, 6-8 p.m.

The Heights Church, 201 W. Renner Rd., Richardson

Worship, pray and re-envision Dr. King's dream of racial unity. Free childcare is provided through Kindergarten

Tickets: $5 in advance or $8 at the door

Martin Luther King Jr., Diversity Celebration 2020 Plano ISD Proud

Thursday, Jan. 23, 6:30-8:15 p.m.

Williams High School auditorium, 1717 17th St.

This annual celebration showcases student talent and diversity leadership in our schools and community. Awards are presented to student winners of the Plano ISD 2019-20 MLK Art Contest and to winners of the 19th Annual Diversity Leadership Awards. Winning artwork is on display at the Cox Building until Feb. 18.

Follow the Collin County MLK Facebook page for details.

Submit Your Best Bookmark Design

Sharpen your pencil or pick your paints for the annual Plano Public Library Bookmark contest ! The contest is open to all ages. Pick up the entry form at your favorite Plano Public Library location or download it from our website. Submit your entry before the contest deadline on Saturday, Feb. 15.

We'll announce the winners on April 23 during the Bookmark Contest Art Celebration at Harrington Library, 1501 18th St. Anyone can attend the celebration. Enjoy the Plano Symphony Orchestra as you view the bookmark designs and other artwork on display. Then snag a free winning bookmark at a library location near you. The contest is funded by Friends of the Plano Public Library.
