

Hi everyone,

Some of my favorites this week. Enjoy!

Common Como Slipups

See the frequent fails ~~crossed out~~ below, and then the fix!

1. We don't want to ~~lose~~ the client to the competition.
Careful, should be lose.
2. Yes, we ~~defiantly~~ want to meet with her next week.
Should be definitely.
("Defiantly" means באופן מתריס, as in "I defiantly insist on choosing "defiantly" from the Spell Check instead of "definitely.")
3. Please ~~chose~~ the image you prefer.
Should be choose.
("Chose" is past tense, as in "I already chose the image I preferred yesterday, thank you.")
4. And another one dear to my heart: Please notify your ~~manger~~ if you'll be attending.
Should be manager.
A "manger" is where you keep food for animals. I have only ever heard it in the context of Christmas.

Jesus in the manger

What do these words have in common?

They all come from Hebrew.

Behemoth:	Something big and powerful. From בהמות
Cabal:	A small group of people who work together secretly. From קבלה
Cherub:	An angel usually shown as a young child. From כרוב
Cider:	Fermented apple juice. From שכר
Jubilee:	A 50th anniversary. From יובל
Sycamore:	Tree of the eastern and central U.S. From שקמה

See ya next time!

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Jennifer". The script is cursive and fluid, with a large initial "J" and a long, sweeping underline.
