

HR transformation: 3 key takeaways from successful data-driven enterprise HR teams

Thursday 25th April at 11am CET

REGISTER INTEREST

On behalf of Visier and Innovatus Media, we invite you to our highly anticipated digital discussion entitled: “HR transformation: 3 key takeaways from successful data-driven enterprise HR teams” being held live online Thursday the 25th April at 11am CET.

HR teams are no longer confined to administrative functions, they are now pivotal drivers of strategic decision-making. And at the heart of this transformation lies data - high quality, on-demand and actionable to make informed choices. Join us for an insightful research-led webinar with Sven Elbert from the Fosway Group, Europe's leading HR analyst firm and Nick Jones, Customer Success Manager at Visier.

In this session we will dive into pivotal market trends, client case-studies and challenges improving data literacy, and driving operational efficiency on the HR transformation journey.

What you'll learn:

- Understand the shifting regional priorities, including skills availability, organisational performance, and profitability.
- Why high-quality data and analytics have become indispensable for HR teams and HR operations.
- Explore the 5-year trends in HR systems' alignment with the modern workforce.
- Uncover the obstacles that hinder HR's ability to deliver high impact and how analytics is emerging as a top driver of change.

RSVP today by registering below or simply respond to the team via email.

Featuring:

Sven Elbert
Head Analyst
Services
Fosway

Nick Jones
Customer Success
Manager
Visier

RSVP + Questions

events@innovatusmedia.com

HR transformation: 3 key takeaways from successful data-driven enterprise HR teams

Live online: Thursday 25th April at 11am CET

Start press Enter ↵

⌚ Takes 30 sec

