PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

A highly versatile and self taught experienced DJ and event coordinator with a strong background in multi-genre live performance, radio broadcasting, and brand activation. I bring a unique blend of creativity: from hosting event for 30-400 people, mentoring aspiring DJ & creatives with professionalism, and cultural awareness to every set. With a background in hospitality, fashion retail, and production, I've developed excellent communication, coordination, and leadership skills, making me a reliable asset for both live and branded events. Currently seeking opportunities to collaborate with music platforms, lifestyle brands, and creative teams who value authentic sound and energy.
