

Phasers Set to Hazy

Hazy, the Hop Frontier. These are the fruit-tastic voyages of Ecliptic Brewing's Phaser Hazy IPA. It's ongoing mission -- TO EXPLORE NEW FRUIT SMOOTHIE HOPPINESS!

Juicy, unfiltered, and loaded with a galaxy's worth of tropical-drenched hops, Phaser Hazy is stunning Ecliptic-loving hopheads across Untappd. Line up your phaser and scope these quotes:

- "This is a rock solid NEIPA. 10/10 would drink again"
- "Best beer Ecliptic has made yet."
- "Should have had this last night with the new episode of #StarTrekDiscovery"

You don't have to be a Trekkie to fall in love with Phaser Hazy's nectarous ways.

Ecliptic's highly-touted fruit knowledge has them pumping out every drop of citrusness from tropical hops: Citra, Mosaic, Azacca, Motueka, and Calypso Hops. It's just like drinking a soft and creamy Jamba Juice with all the fruits -- pineapples, lemons, limes, oh my that's hazy! It then finishes with a crisp, peppery bite to keep things level and ready your palate for the next juicy trek.

Get ready to throw Vulcan salutes in the air like you just don't care 'cause Phaser Hazy is gonna beam up some fruit nectar smoothness right onto your tongue. Live long and prosper, craft friends.
