SUMMARY

Trilingual journalism student expected to graduate in Fall 2026, with experience in local reporting, multimedia production, and community storytelling. Fluent in English, Portuguese, and Spanish, I bring a cross-cultural perspective, strong communication skills, and a commitment to ethical journalism.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Pulp City Magazine | Reporting Intern May 2026 – Present

- Researched and wrote articles, features, blogs, and briefs for the online website.
- Researched, interviewed and wrote in-depth feature articles covering important local stories, including the independent music scene and immigrant community in Orlando.

WUSF | Digital News Intern May 2026 - Aug. 2026

- Produced audio and visual material for WUSF social media sites, as well as writing digital stories related to the Tampa Bay community.
- Utilized NewsBoss to manage assignments and newsroom content while strengthening multimedia production skills in Adobe Premiere Pro.

Centric Magazine | Reporter Jan. 2025 – July 2025

- Collaborated with editors, designers and photographers to ensure cohesive visual and editorial storytelling.
- Interviewed sources and wrote feature stories for UCF's student-run print magazine focused on identity, culture and campus life.
- Explored how first and second-generation students navigate heritage language preservation and cultural identity.

The Charge | Content Editor (previously reporter) Jan. 2023 – Present

- Conducted, translated and transcribed interviews from Spanish to English.
- Fall 2024: Covered the College of Sciences and wrote stories involving departments such as anthropology, biology and psychology.
- Selected to serve as a Capstone Editor (Fall 2026), mentoring and editing the work of emerging journalism students while overseeing story development and providing editorial feedback.
