

EVENT PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2023 SOCIAL INJUSTICE SYMPOSIUM

Social Justice in a Digital Media Era

[Dateline: FORT VALLEY, GA, OCT. 18] — The Fort Valley State University Social Justice Task Force presents its 2023 Social Justice Symposium with its0 distinguished guest speaker, Lynae Vanee. Along with Ms. Vanee, the other panelists for the evening will be Jakoba Mildton and Aniya Warfiled. This highly anticipated event will commence at 6:30 P.M. on October 26, 2023 in the CTM Pettigrew Auditorium.

Lynae Vanee is a two-time NAACP Image Award Nominee, multifaceted poet, producer, director, and starring talent hailing from Atlanta, Georgia. A graduate of Spelman College and Boston University with a Master's Degree in African-American Studies, Lynae uses her digital platform to speak on race, feminism, politics, and inclusivity. Lynae's viral videos have garnered over 50 million views on Instagram alone, launching collaborations with the likes of Issa Rae, Daveed Diggs, and the Vice President of the United States, Kamala Harris, to name a few.

The event is open to students, staff, and faculty members. All you need is your Fort Valley State University ID to enter the auditorium.

“Something that I realized in my life and my journey through school is that being black, bold, and a woman in America, everything is political.

About FVSU Social Task Force

The Fort Valley State University's Social Justice Task Force introduces its vision of a more equitable society where all members live in a physically and psychologically safe and secure environment. Their mission is to empower FVSU students and “comm-university” with healthy avenues for creating structural and systematic change to address agents of social justice.

**###