

THE CURRENT

WHAT is The Current

The Current is a student-operated publication for MSU students. The arts and culture magazine has goals of amplifying diverse student experiences, and is produced quarterly with additional online exclusives.

MISSION of The Current

“The Current is a student-run news outlet that operates on an experiential learning model to hone the crafts of journalism and publication/project management. Our topics and corresponding social media campaigns represent the values and interests of our staff and readers.”

WHO runs The Current

WRA 480: Publication Management students operate The Current alongside a design team.
This year the class is taught by Kathryn Houghton.

HOW to read The Current

You can read the digital version of The Current & our online exclusives on our website
thecurrentmsu.com

WRITING for The Current

Students enrolled in WRA 202 have the opportunity to freelance for The Current. You can also contact us through our website.