Personal Statement

Grace is seeking a position catering to the media and communications field. She recently obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Journalism and Musical Theatre from North Central College (NCC), where she graduated Cum Laude. In addition to NCC, Grace took her education abroad at Canterbury Christ Church University in Canterbury, England to broaden her horizons on international education. Grace's passion is writing and creating engaging content, and she strives to find a role where she can exercise these skills. At NCC, she was actively involved in the theatre and media department and advocated for studying abroad. Grace always strives to produce the best possible work and make life-long connections. She excels at taking initiative in working roles and demonstrates many leader-like qualities.
