@alex_kuster

This stunning dress belonged to Alex's grandma when she worked as a secretary in the 1960s. Alex has ReFreshed a classic with some on trend Birks and a messy bun. What a great way to keep it in the family, we love this look.

Ashley, 22
@ashley_kippax

Ashley's funky shirt was found at a pre-loved vintage kilo sale. She gives it a modern twist here by pairing with some black skinnies and a chunky belt. For a more casual look, untuck, unbutton and layer a simple vest top underneath.

Kate got her amazing second hand jumper for free in a clothing swap. She's effortlessly tucked it in to some comfy ripped mom jeans and completed the look with a fresh pair of trainers. Perfect for a day out or a picnic in the park.
