KEY WEST, FL, Sept. 28, 2024– In the wake of Hurricane Terry, Ocean View Resorts announces the appointment of Derrick Lloyd as the new Facilities Director. Lloyd will lead the crucial rebuilding and recovery efforts at the resort, ensuring Ocean View Resorts returns to its luxury, world-class standard.

“We are confident that Derrick's experience and expertise will be vital in our restoration process,” said Grace Thompson, Owner of Ocean View Resorts. “We have long admired his work for the hospitality industry throughout the globe and are grateful to be able to welcome him to our restoration team.”

Lloyd has ample experience in the hospitality industry and has formerly spearheaded the construction of numerous award winning five star resorts (e.g. The London Ritz, Atlantis The Royal, The St. Regis Toronto). Through this challenging time, the resort’s vision to rebuild and provide a safe environment for its guests is clear. Lloyd will help ensure the brand continues to stand for excellence, relaxation, and unforgettable moments for all staff and guests.

“As a Key West native, I felt I needed to return to my roots to help rebuild and restore our city to its former glory. As a new addition to the Ocean View family, I am committed to returning the resort to its high standards our guests expect and to the safety and satisfaction of any visitor wanting to experience all Key West has to offer,” said Lloyd.

As Ocean View Resorts works alongside local authorities in the recovery efforts, the resort encourages everyone to contribute to hurricane relief funds and support local businesses impacted by Hurricane Terry. Donations can be made through the resort’s website or directly to local Key West relief organizations.
