

Media Alert

Ocean View Resort, Key West's all-inclusive five-star resort, will be holding a Grand Reopening Gala.

Ocean View Resorts invites the media to an exclusive, all-inclusive overnight stay to the grand reopening fundraising gala.

Who: Ocean View Resort is Key West's most popular five-star resort. Ocean View has won a number of awards including, the AAA Four Diamond Award, Tripadvisor Certificate of Excellence, and has also been listed on Forbes Travel List a number of times. In the wake of Hurricane Terry, Ocean View has been temporarily closed for the past five months, but has set the date for its reopening.

What: Ocean View Resort will be hosting a grand reopening and gala to raise funds for families of victims of Hurricane Terry. The resort will provide an all inclusive overnight stay and gala attendance to first responders, donors, and affected families of the hurricane. There will also be a gala with the goal to raise additional funds to those impacted by Hurricane Terry.

When: Friday, Jan. 31, 2025 and Saturday, Feb. 1, 2025
4-7:30 p.m. Media Tour and Interviews
8:30 p.m. Public Event and Gala

Where: Ocean View Resort, 100 Ocean View Ln., Key West, FL

Background: In the wake of Hurricane Terry, Ocean View Resort was temporarily closed due to an electrical fire and other damages caused by Hurricane Terry. The resort has since been rebuilt and renovated; therefore, the Ocean View plans to be open to the public starting Monday, Feb. 3.

Reporters can RSVP by Monday, Jan. 27, at 5 p.m.

Contact

Leah Ervin

919-428-7887

leahmckervin@gmail.com