

Garth Brooks Facing Lawsuit over Sexual Assault and Battery

As of Thursday October 3rd, American country music singer Garth Brooks faces legal issues over a sexual assault claim.

Jane Roe, who worked as Brooks' hair and makeup artist from 2017-2021, claims Brooks assaulted her in 2019 while preparing for a Grammy Tribute.

Roe, originally the makeup artist for Brooks' wife, alleges Brooks offered her extra work when she needed extra money in 2019.

Roe claims Brooks indecently exposed himself to her and spoke inappropriately before raping her later that year.

Brooks filed a lawsuit against Roe with claims that she was attempting to ruin his character and financially extort him.

Brooks maintains his innocence, saying he trusts the court to reveal the truth.

Now, over to sports with John Doe.
