THE INTERNET

By Chickytown - Posted Mar 23, 2004

G4TV STAFF

- * Need to get out aggression?
- * Too much of a wee lassie to stand up for yourself in real life?
- * Afraid of real human interaction?

Then join the millions of people who have switched to THE INTERNET for all of their life needs.

With THE INTERNET, you can finally be the tormentor instead of the tormented! You can talk to girls or girl-like entities! You can date that Orc you've had your eye on!

Finally, you, too can:

- * Call people names without fear of having your face punched in.
- * Let fly a stream of obscenities in every direction at strangers, people you barely know and your so-called friends to celebrate freedom of speech, let off steam or just because you can, baby! You have RIGHTS!!!
- * Post pants-wettingly funny images with pithy sayings all over every message board you can find. Don't bother inventing your own clever put-downs--there are whole sites out there that feature your kind of racist, sexist, homophobic or just plain tasteless humor. It's fast, easy and fun! "LOL" indeed!
- * Have deep, meaningful "relationships" with people you'll never meet in real life! Finally, you can say "I have a girlfriend", "I have a boyfriend" or BOTH!
- * Appropriate other people's ideas and even property--jokes, pictures, software, term papers--and pass 'em off as your own. Who's gonna know? The sky's the limit! And it's FREE!
- * Create your own unique and beautiful spellings for the most commonplace words. Why look up how to spell, say, the aforementioned "unique" when there are dozens of barely intelligible variations that can flow from your keyboard? "U-neek", "ewenik", "ookneeque"--it's literally up to you! It's like you're Shakespeare or something! Minus the literacy!

More Headlines

* Sell your crappy artwork, your mom's collectibles and even stuff that doesn't really exist to the dumb suckers on those auction websites. What are they gonna do, sue you?

*Share the most intimate and embarrassing details of your personal life with the world. Do you have opinions? Well, nobody's opinion is more important than yours! Share the wealth, my main man. As often as possible. Use caps if you have to. YOU KNOW YOU'RE RIGHT! Now let everyone else know how right you are.

That's right, folks, THE INTERNET allows you to do this and much, much more!

Already on THE INTERNET? Good for you, sparky. Just remember, you're nobody 'til somebody has banned your ass from at least one message board. Now get back out there and post a single word or emoticon (that's a "smiley" to you, dopey) over and over again until it fills the screen and messes up the readability of the message board or chat you're "contributing" to!* It's your Internet, we just post in it!!

*Don't even think about doing that on G4's message board or chat. You'll be spanked soundly on the username if you do.
