A MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

The 2017-2018 academic year was an exciting one for Lipscomb Academy. We remained committed not only to raising the academic bar for our students but ensured that our teachers continued their commitment to being lifelong learners.

During my more than 20 years of education, I continue to be humbled by the passion with which our teachers inspire their students and our community comes together in times of tragedy.

The 2017-2018 school year is one that I will never forget, not only for the remarkable accomplishments of our teachers and students but for my family in the loss of my wife, Loa. Your prayers, kind words and notes of encouragement meant a great deal to my family, and I appreciate the support of the Lipscomb community during this time.

The school year saw many accomplishments for our teachers and students, with highlights including winning our first state championship in Division I basketball, the cast and crew of our high school theatre production of Cinderella, winning three Spotlight Awards, and participating in the National Forensic League both locally and abroad, with 131 participants taking part in eight domestic and international events.

Our school continued strengthening our unique partnership with Lipscomb University providing a unique academic opportunity. High school students had the opportunity to take 30 college classes at Lipscomb University, and our senior class took 356 dual enrollment or advanced placement courses during high school.

When taking a look at our student body, it's apparent that our students are passionate about their education and pursue their passions tirelessly. As we look ahead, our school has many opportunities for growth and we are excited to see what the future holds for Lipscomb Academy. Thank you for your support across our campus for the benefit of your child. I thank you for your prayers and look forward to the many ways God will bless our campus in the days ahead.

In His Service,

Greg J. Glenn
Head of School

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Spiritual formation at Lipscomb Academy involves students as leaders and participants in living a life of faith. The spiritual formation theme this year was "Walking with God," as well as contemporary examples of a life lived in pursuit of God. During chapel services, students were encouraged to regularly speak and lead chapel services as part of our LEAD Lipscomb program and weekly small group chapels. When it comes to serving outside of Lipscomb Academy, 8 eight mission teams and 123 participants served in places like Guatemala, Dallas-Fort Worth, and Haiti. We're incredibly thankful for the opportunities God has provided this past year to grow in Jesus' likeness.

FINE ARTS

The 2017-2018 school year was a year of great activity for the Lipscomb Academy Fine Arts program. Our high school choruses received the first and second highest ratings at the state choral festival, and performed throughout the city, including at the famed Ryman Auditorium. Visual art students were recognized in various art competitions, and our bands were again successful in their respective adjudications. The theatre program had nine nominations in the Nashville Spotlight Musical awards held at TPAC's Jacks <sup>Remove "10"</sup> home top honors in the Vocals, Best Male Vocalist and Best Overall Tech categories. In only the second year of our strings program, growth in numbers and musicianship are far beyond expectations. The sports season was the girls 4x100m relay team winning its first Tennessee Secondary Athletic Association (TSSAA) Division II state championship, garnering the academy its X state championship in X years, this spring. Lipscomb Academy competed as a member of the TSSAA first time during this past school year. In addition to the academy, Lipscomb the academy sent individual girls' golf and cross country to the state meet for second place in the region and the Mustangs middle school football team went undefeated. The winter sports season saw the Lipscomb boys' bowling team finish in the final four of the state and the girls' bowling team qualified for the state meet. The academy enjoyed an outstanding spring season with the girls' tennis team and the girls' softball team.

THE ART EVENT

The Art Event at Lipscomb Academy | 14th Annual

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE ART EVENT AT LIPSCOMB ACADEMY

The weekend of February 8-11, 2018, Lipscomb Academy hosted its 14th annual Art Event in a new location on campus. The McCadams Athletic Center was transformed into a beautiful venue displaying a wide range of media including painting, jewelry and woodworking. This year's featured artist was Vicki Denaburg of Birmingham, Alabama, and was our most successful to date, boasting more than $205,000 in fine art sales, raising $89,014 for the Lipscomb Academy Annual Fund.

Our silent auction featured a series of "Music City"-themed artwork by Lipscomb Academy students, as well as pieces donated by many of our artists in attendance. All of the proceeds from the silent auction, totaling $7,150, benefit the fine arts at Lipscomb Academy. Funds from the silent auction have aided in purchasing instruments for the strings program, construction to create a backstage door to Acuff for performers, and purchasing a large format printer and digital cameras for our visual arts programs.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN FUND at LIPSCOMB ACADEMY

Lipscomb Academy's core values are: love to learn, learn to love, and live to serve, and through those values the Good Samaritan fund was born. In the word of God, the Good Samaritan was the one who picked up a beaten person along the side of the road and helped him heal and become a friend. The same principle is evident at Lipscomb Academy. We love each other and wherever possible care for the physical, mental and spiritual needs of God's people. Our Good Samaritan Fund provides emergency assistance to Academy families in temporary need when unforeseen circumstances such as a health crisis, loss of job, or other significant life change impacts their daily life and finances.

WHAT ARE PLANNED GIFTS?

Two apostrophes in this paragraph need formatting.

Planned gifts include provisions for Lipscomb Academy in wills and life insurance policies and other types of gifts which allow donors to retain the use of, or income from, their gifts for a specified time, usually the donor's lifetime. These planned gifts may also provide you and your heirs with significant income tax and or estate tax benefits. We appreciate all alumni, parents, and friends who support Lipscomb Academy to do something tangible for the school's future.

WHY MAKE A PLANNED GIFT?

As the cost of providing quality Christian education continues to rise, the need for funds derived from planned giving becomes more important. Your commitment to Lipscomb Academy during your lifetime will enable this school to plan now for future needs, while ensuring excellent education for generations to come. Planned gifts enable the Academy to plan its programs, activities, curriculum and physical plant into the future – while keeping tuition as low as reasonably possible. Gift planning allows you to make a planned gift that will support that will become your lasting legacy.

We ask you to share our desires for Lipscomb Academy by making a planned gift to the school. Like other financial decisions, a planned gift must be chosen and shaped with care. Lipscomb Academy welcomes the opportunity to discuss ways to include the school in your financial and estate plans. Call the LA Advancement Office, 615-966-6227 or contact Paul Stovall in the Center for Estate & Gift Planning, for additional information.

CREATE A LEGACY FOR GENERATIONS TO COME.

Extra space?

Remove comma

When you establish an endowment or scholarship fund, a permanent, self-sustaining source of funding, you create a permanent legacy of support for Lipscomb Academy. A strong endowment is the "backbone" of most successful schools, universities, and cultural institutions across the country. The institutions that set the standards of quality, push the frontiers of innovation, and open the doors of the future over generations are, almost without exception, those with the strongest endowments.

Our vision for Lipscomb Academy is to grow endowments that support the overall mission of the school, as well as specific areas within our mission.

Martha Riedl Endowment for Teaching Excellence

For nearly 40 years, Martha Riedl molded the minds and hearts of students throughout the Lipscomb community. Stepping foot on the campus of Lipscomb Academy in the fall of 1961, Riedl brought commitment, passion and energy to the classroom that is well remembered nearly 20 years after her retirement. As a chemistry teacher, she had the opportunity to show students how faith and science intertwine. As an English teacher, she ingrained in students how the written and spoken word is among the greatest gifts for expressing our deepest sorrows and greatest joys. As teacher of the Christian Woman class, she empowered her students to be bold in their faith and continually seek a deeper relationship with God. Following her retirement in 1998, grateful alumni and friends endowed the Martha Riedl Teacher Excellence Fund to encourage other teachers to grow in their craft and to display the excellence and dedication exemplified by Mrs. Riedl. Grants from the fund are available to any full-time academy faculty member.

Richard Jones Family Scholarship Fund

Established in 1992 this endowed fund provides financial assistance to students attending Lipscomb Academy. The initial gift to establish this fund was made by Mrs. T.W. Jones, J

Doug and Joan Wright Endowed Scholarship Fund

This endowed scholarship fund was established in June 2009 to provide supplemental financial aid that will inspire students to attend Lipscomb Academy despite significant financial need. This scholarship was made possible by an initial gift from Doug and Joan Wright of Nashville, TN, these two high school sweethearts who graduated from David Lipscomb High School and have been lifelong supporters of the school and its mission.

To make a donation to any of these scholarships or to set up an endowment, contact name and email.
